The level of rigor that your student chooses should be individual to them.

- Think about other responsibilities such as sports, clubs, outside activities, family obligations, etc.
- Balance is key.
- Ask for teacher and parent input when choosing classes
- Read the online High School Course Catalog for information about each course and any additional requirements.

Registration Form

- Paper Copy given to your student

SKYWARD FAMILY ACCESS

Skyward Family Access is a web-based component of our student database management system (Skyward) and provides parents real-time access to their student(s) information. Parents can see and update basic information like:

- address,
- telephone number, (including adding cell number for text messages from schools/district),
- emergency contact information, and
- complete/submit a free/reduced meal application, attendance information, and immunization history.

Parents of middle school and high school students can access assignment and gradebook information for current courses and historical transcript of grades.

If you do not have a login ID for Family Access, please contact your student's school.
