

FDLRS Heartland

Webinar Wednesday Program List – March-May 2022

March 6-12, 2022

This webinar focuses primarily on evidence-based intervention strategies, tips and accommodations you can use to help students prone to self-injury – especially those dealing with anxiety and depression.

* SWD hours

March 20-26, 2022

In this webinar, viewers are given an in-depth knowledge of what working memory is and how it relates to students' classroom success and teachers' classroom management success.

March 27-April 2, 2022

For those educators just getting their feet wet with technology integration, participants will explore exciting ways to use tech tools to increase student engagement.

April 3-9, 2022

During this webinar, participants explore Disruptive Behavior Disorders and learn effective practices for working with students challenged by these disorders in the classroom

* SWD hours

April 10-16, 2022

Students who have been instructed in "mindfulness" experience increases in test scores and executive functioning while showing decreases in stress, anxiety, depression and bullying.

May 1-7, 2022

In this webinar, participants will gain insight and understanding of the role of gender in education and how to develop effective strategies to engage boys in the learning process.

Webinars are self-paced and online, participants have the week to view the webinar and must complete a follow-up reflection and evaluation in order to receive inservice credit.

Registration

➔ DeSoto, Glades, and Hendry counties:

Register at: <https://bit.ly/FDLRS-Webinars-Q4>

➔ Highlands county:

Search for the title of the webinar in your Frontline PLM portal

FDLRS Heartland Center
1076 US Hwy 27 N, Lake Placid, FL 33852

863-531-0444
www.fdlrsheartland.org

FDLRS is funded by the Florida Department of Education, Division of Public Schools, Bureau of Exceptional Student Education, through federal assistance under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Part B and State General Revenue funds.