- Jenna Francis! Jenna always gives her best effort in everything she does. She is always the first student at my door ready to go and take care of business. She has a kind heart and generosity toward classmates who need help and a personal responsibility that is admirable in someone her age. She has an amazing ability to always put a smile on my face and never gives up when things get difficult. ~K. Burks
- Guillermo Hernandez! Guillermo has stepped up as a student leader in my class. He has increased his efforts in his studies and is improving in test scores and classwork! His willingness to lead group assignments and determination to complete work to the best of his ability are sure to take him far in the future! ~K. Burks
- Sebastian Perez Abarca! Sebastian is a fantastic student leader in class. His personal responsibility and determination to always do his best in class have placed him in the top of my achievement charts on a consistent basis. He does an amazing job in everything he does and shows an aptitude for both academics and leadership. His calming personality is so welcome in class and his attitude of kindness to others is greatly admired and appreciated. ~K. Burks
- Priscilla Turrubiates! Priscila has been working extremely hard to surpass her academic goals in my class. She gives her greatest efforts in class every day and completes her work with attention to detail and determination to make the best scores possible. Her hard work and integrity distinguishes her among her peers. She is willing to help other students and possesses a great potential for leadership. ~K. Burks
- Joanna Martinez! Joanna always gives her greatest effort in everything she does. She doesn't allow things that are difficult to get her down for long and seeks to always improve. I appreciate her kindness and responsibility in class, especially on the days that are hectic and abnormal. She is always ready to go and take care of her personal responsibilities with determination to be her best self every day. ~K. Burks

- Alejandro Ortega! Alejandro consistently gives his best efforts every day in class. Every project is done with extreme thoughtfulness and every assignment is done precisely according to instructions. His persistence and attention to detail has served him extremely well in his classwork. He also has an amazing sense of humor and isn't afraid to laugh (quietly to himself) at my jokes. Alejandro is sure to have a very exciting future in store! ~K. Burks
- Ethan Edwards-Shedd! If anyone needs a smile or just a positive word, Ethan is the person to see. His personality is a relief to anyone needing a friend. He always has a kind word to say and is willing to do whatever needs to be done to help another person. He is helpful, compassionate, and a fun person to be around. He works hard in class every day and is always reaching for his next academic goal. I appreciate his dedication and enthusiasm each day in class. ~K. Burks
