The Ignatian Guild Presents
The 43rd Annual
FASHION SHOW

NOVEMBER 10 & 11, 2012

Dear Friends of St. Ignatius,

For more than 155 years, St. Ignatius College Preparatory has been providing an outstanding Jesuit college preparatory education for the young people of the Bay Area. I have been on the job since July 1 as SI's president. My time at SI, thus far, compared to 155-plus years of academic excellence is not much to write home about! However, I have been given the charge to welcome you to this edition of our Annual Report, and it is an opportunity that I warmly embrace.

During the short time that I have been a member of the SI community, I have been impressed with the outpouring of love and support that so many people have for our school. Certainly our alumni lead the charge in this area. I have met alums from a wide variety of classes. Without exception, these good people have told me how proud they are of their association with SI. In addition to meeting our alumni, I have also had the pleasure of meeting many members of our community – SI faculty, staff, parents, past parents, benefactors and students – who all hold SI in high esteem. What is it about our beloved school that has such a profound impact on our community? I believe our school is so special because our identity as a Jesuit high school is at our core.

Jesuit secondary education is about transforming our students into young women and men for and with others. Yes, I know that you have more than likely heard that phrase a time or two! Our academics and our co-curriculars are strong. We have an outstanding faculty, staff and administration; we are blessed. However, if we were to stop with all of those good ingredients, we would simply be a very good school. A Jesuit high school goes deeper and actively promotes a philosophy based on the spirituality of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits. Ignatius was all about helping an individual find God in all things – from the simplest moment of a day to the more complex, challenging parts of life. At SI, we actively live out Ignatius' vision of striving to find God in all things – from the challenge of a problem in algebra and the beauty of the written word to the laughter around the table at lunch time.

What also makes our Jesuit identity so distinctive are the men and women – laity and Jesuit – who live out the mission of our school each day. Over the past few weeks, I have heard many stories about the “legends” of SI, men and women who in some way reached out and touched our students' hearts and minds. In many ways, both great and small, our faculty, staff and administration bring the person of Jesus to our students each day. The spirit of St. Ignatius of Loyola is alive and well at SI!

The many good works that take place each day here – in the classroom and beyond – would not be possible without our many gracious benefactors and their steadfast support. Thanks to the generosity of so many people who love SI, we have a school that continues to help our students soar to new heights. As you read over the list of names of our benefactors from the past year, I would ask you to offer a prayer of thanksgiving for these exceptional men and women. On behalf of our Board of Trustees, our Board of Regents, our faculty and staff and our students whom we are blessed to serve, thank you for your kind thoughts and for your financial support. Please be assured of the prayers of the entire SI community for you and your loved ones.

Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam!

THE FR. CARLIN HERITAGE SOCIETY

We especially thank the following lifetime friends who have made provisions in their estate plans—bequests, charitable trusts, gifts of life insurance or retirement funds—to support SI's Endowment Fund. Such gifts provide for the long-term welfare of SI and may also provide donors with valuable tax and income benefits during their lifetime. The forethought and generosity of the following is most appreciated.

PARTNERSHIP

by Joe Vollert '84, Vice President for Development

St. Ignatius College Preparatory thrives on a multitude of partnerships. I draw your attention to three key ones.

In this past year, the nine members of the Board of Trustees – with the Jesuit members holding the majority vote – hired SI's first lay president, Mr. John Knight. This partnership is one of mission. The Trustees are charged with ensuring SI's fidelity to its mission and have likewise charged Mr. Knight, as director of the work, with helping everyone at SI live up to the mission of the school as they form policies, make decisions and perform the day-to-day operations.

The second partnership is one often referred to in Jesuit circles as “the work.” It is a partnership of the faculty and staff to the mission. The real work is played out each day in the classroom and chapel and on the field, court and stage. Our faculty and staff instruct, inspire and challenge our 1,450 young Ignatians to choose a life centered on Christ, the man we meet in the gospels, who teaches us to respond courageously to the challenges of our times. There is nothing more sacred than the relationship between our students and their teachers, counselors, coaches, directors and priests.

Mr. Totah's quarterly Genesis magazine tells the stories of the fruits of this work: teachers and students who do the work at SI and of alumni who take that work into their careers and communities. The stories showcase many leaders who are innovative, passionate and attuned to the key social issues of our day.

The last partnership key to this “work” is with you, our loyal and generous alumni, parents, friends and benefactors. This partnership has succeeded over the years because you have given us your trust. SI receives no government support; thus, you and you alone empower SI to provide clean, safe and appropriate state-of-the-art facilities for our faculty and students. You help us provide a Jesuit education to more than 25 percent of our students who otherwise could not afford to attend SI. You allow us to innovate so that we may provide the best possible education to tomorrow's generations. In short, your partnership ensures SI's fidelity to its mission. Great teaching, facilities and programs don't just happen. They take strategic planning, proper resources and strong leadership.

These three partnerships, a trinity of sorts, echo the partnerships Christ had – his partnership with his disciples; with those whom he healed; and with the Father and Holy Spirit, the other members of the Holy Trinity. So, too, do we find strength in and give thanks for these three partnerships that give life to all that we do.

Sixty seven members of the Class of 2013 went on immersion experiences over the summer. Above, Nicole Vincelette '13 harvested lettuce in Salinas.
