IWA Choir

By participating in Incarnate Word Academy Choir, you will continue the tradition of excellence in music making at IWA through concerts, contest performances, and leading in the music ministry at all school liturgies. Choir members will also participate in the TPSMEA Concert and Sight Reading contests.

Choir is a full year curricular class that counts as one full credit towards your fine arts elective graduation requirement. The class meets zero period, which starts at 7:00 a.m. Daily class attendance is mandatory, therefore habitual absences and tardies will be reflected in the student's grade. Students who do not meet attendance requirements will not receive credit for the course.

Incarnate Word Academy Choir students will be asked to pay a choir fee at the start of the course. The fee to participate in choir will be announced and includes a choir dress, t-shirt and other contest fees.

For more information regarding the IWA choir program, please contact IWA's Choir Director, Mr. Josh Wilson, at jwilson@incarnateword.org.

St. Thomas High School Band

By participating in the St. Thomas High School band program, you will perform as a member of the STHS band at concerts, performances and football games.

Band is a full year curricular class that counts as one full credit towards your fine arts elective graduation requirement. The class meets Monday through Friday at St. Thomas High School during zero period, which starts at 7:00 a.m. Daily class attendance is mandatory, therefore habitual absences and tardies will be reflected in the student's grade. Transportation to IWA for first period may be arranged through STHS.

Summer Band Camp will be July 25 - 29, 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Students can register online at <http://summer.sths.org/>.

For more information regarding the STH Band program, please contact the STHS Band Director, Mr. Donald Thoede, at Donald.Thoede@sths.org.
