Catholic Sisters Week (3/8-3/14)

Catholic Sisters Week began in 2015 as a part of National Women's History Month. It is now an official component of Women's History Month. It was authorized by Molly Murphy MacGregor, co-founder of National Women's History Project, who was educated and deeply influenced by Catholic sisters. In 1981, Women's History Month launched as a single week. By 1987, U.S. Congress formally expanded it to the full month of March. (<https://catholicsistersweek.org/>)

Our community will celebrate the Sisters of Saint Dominic and our very own Dominican Sisters of Caldwell this week! As such, the Community Mission Team and the Dominican Preachers have some special events and assemblies planned - both during the school day and after school, including a very special afternoon planned with the Sisters and our sister schools (SDA and Lacordaire) where students & adults will get to meet with and learn about some of the Caldwell Dominican Sisters and hear their stories, as well as learn more about the Dominican mission and our own school's history.

"We, Sisters of Saint Dominic of Caldwell, are a community of vowed women religious responding to God's call and united in our quest for the unfolding revelation of God. We preach the Word of God through lives of contemplative prayer, study and ministry in response to the needs of our time."
