National School Breakfast Week

What is National School Breakfast Week?

It's a weeklong celebration of the national School Breakfast Program, permanently established in 1975 by an act of Congress. Schools across the country celebrate with special menu items, events and student activities. NSBW is the perfect time to bring attention to your breakfast program and set a goal to increase participation.

Studies show that children who eat school breakfast are more likely to:

Reach higher levels of achievement in reading and math

Score higher on standardized tests

Have better concentration and memory

Be more alert and maintain a healthy weight

The National School Breakfast Program also serves more than 14 million children every school day—that's a crowd of cosmic proportions!

Capitalize on NSBW with our tools and resources, including social media tips to help you promote your program to parents and students!

Changes have been made to this year's school calendar!

The calendar is listed on the Bourne Public School's website (the direct link is below). Please note these dates specifically:

March 11 and 25 - Full day of school with regular dismissal time

March 20 - In-Service Day for Teachers, No School for Students

April 8 - Full day of school with regular dismissal time

May 22 - Half day of school (12:15 Dismissal for BES)
