Friends' Central School Overview

Friends' Central School is an independent, coeducational Quaker day school founded in 1845 and serving approximately 800 students in Nursery through grade 12. Located in the Philadelphia suburbs, the School has two campuses. The Middle & Upper Schools are located just outside of West Philadelphia in Wynnewood, and the Lower School is on our Old Gulph Road campus in the heart of Wynnewood.

The exceptional faculty at Friends' Central offers a curriculum that cultivates the intellectual, spiritual, and ethical growth of our students. Our pedagogy is grounded in continuing revelation, reflection, integrity, and a willingness to accept responsibility. From Nursery to grade 12, our students participate in a process designed to foster creative, critical, and flexible thinking, along with compassion. As they transform from playful children to skilled, self-possessed teenagers, they are always intellectually curious and engaged thinkers. Friends' Central prepares graduates to succeed in college and in life.

Middle School English Teacher - Maternity Leave Long-Term Substitute

Friends' Central Middle School seeks a teacher of English for grade six. This is a temporary, maternity leave replacement from late August through October 2022. Ideal candidates will be highly motivated, hard-working and flexible, demonstrate a desire to learn, and show initiative and an ability to connect with students. Reporting directly to the Middle School principal, this teacher will be responsible for four sections of sixth-grade English and act as an advisor to a group of students.

The ideal candidate will have a degree in history or education, be committed to providing for the developmental needs of this age group, and possess strong classroom management skills. This person will also have responsibilities beyond the classroom, including serving as an advisor to a small group of sixth graders, facilitating a weekly club, and supervising a weekly service project.

Primary Responsibilities

- Teach the Grade 6 English curriculum
- Assess students' progress and performance, including writing mid-semester reports
- Communicate with teachers and parents regarding student needs and progress
- Attend grade-level team meetings & faculty meetings
- Act as a point person and advocate for a small group of sixth-grade advisees
- Act as a faculty advisor for a Middle School club and service project

Qualifications

- Experience teaching middle-school-aged students
- Minimum of three years' experience in an educational setting
- Bachelor's or graduate-level degree in English, the humanities, and/or education
- All Friends' Central employees are required to be up to date on their COVID-19 vaccinations
