SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Mr. Broadnax attended the National Superintendent's Conference where nearly 4,000 superintendents were present. Thanks to the High School and Middle School principals and counselors for designing a block schedule for the '22-'23 school year, which will be taken to the CEA Union. The process for food service for the district has begun. County and other public figures have been invited to read to our elementary school students. March 10, 2022, will be the first planning session for the 2022-2023 school year. The second monthly meeting with the Teacher Advisory Committee has taken place and things are going very well. Teachers from each school within the district are represented.
