

Enrichment Websites

Language Arts	Children's Literature Web Guide	Here you will find a list of books for children, parents, and teachers.
http://people.ucalgary.ca/~dkbrown/index.html
Science	ExploraNet	The San Francisco Exploratorium has this site that contains many educational activities and information.
http://www.exploratorium.edu/
Science	Kinetic City Super Crew	This has monthly learning adventures for grades 3-7. Based on the award-winning radio show and book series, it presents monthly challenges. Teams present their findings on their own team Web sites.
http://www.kineticcity.com/
The Arts	ArtsEdge	This site contains information and resources for K-12 curriculum.
http://artsedge.kennedy-center.org/educators.aspx
Assessment	North Central Regional Educational Laboratory	This is a federally-funded research laboratory. It offers research-based information on school improvement, professional development, science, technology, literacy, learning and assessment.
http://www.ncrel.org/
Creativity	Kid's Space	This site has many learning activities. Kids age 16 and under can send their creative pieces for others to view.
http://www.kids-space.org/
Social Studies	The History Net	Historical events and issues are included here.
http://www.historynet.com/
Teacher Resources	Whalenet	This offers teachers and students curriculum resources and support, along with data and field experiences provided by researchers and can be used for interdisciplinary units.
http://www.wheelock.edu/		