

The Curriculum

Activities such as gardening, handwork, and woodwork are part of the elementary curriculum and give children not only concrete skills, but an understanding of how things come into being and a respect for the creations of others.

