

The Community

Festivals... These school-wide events honor the seasons and bring celebration and renewal to our community life. Davis Waldorf School festivals include Michaelmas, Thanksgiving, Halloween, Advent, Christmas, and May Day, among others. Although each festival is unique, most include elements of story, music, crafts, and special foods; all members of the school community - parents, children, teachers, and staff - participate in the preparation and enjoyment of these traditional celebrations.

