

Results of Waldorf Education

In the seventh and eighth grades, Davis Waldorf students take a norm-referenced, standardized test. On average, our students test 2-3 grades above their level. Many of our graduates transfer to the Sacramento Waldorf School in Sacramento, while others transfer to their local public high school. These transitions are successful due in large part to their academic and social preparedness to meet the world after being given such a solid foundation upon which to stand.

