

The Preschool: A Magical Beginning

Routine: Regular rhythms – alternating vigorous activities with quieter ones – guide the structure of each day. During nature walks and outdoor play times, children develop a sense of wonder and a love of nature.

