

The Preschool: A Magical Beginning

In our preschool there is an emphasis on free play. An atmosphere of warmth and calm sets the stage for a rhythmical cycle of activities, including:

- Free play and puppet shows to ignite imagination and support social relationships
- Outdoor play and short walks to foster an appreciation of nature and gross motor skills

