

The Kindergarten: A Place to Grow

Creative play is an important part of the daily rhythm in the kindergarten. Children are able to weave an infinite variety of scenes and stories out of their own imaginations with baskets of seashells and river rocks, playsilks, wooden play frames, and simple cloth dolls.

