Y11 – Y13 Virtual Professional Panel Events

The University of Law is running a series of event to help you to learn more about different career opportunities:

Explore Criminology & Policing: 22nd March 5pm – 6.30pm

For students considering joining the Police or those that want to study Criminology, the panel of experts will be able to guide you through the career options and the qualifications you will need whilst also sharing their experience of working in their respective fields.

Explore Business: 22nd March 5pm – 6.30pm

The business panel makes this event ideal for students considering studying Business at university but unsure of the paths available after graduation. The professionals on the panel will be able to share their experiences of establishing their own business, training to be a Chartered Accountant and developing their careers to management levels.

Explore Law: 23rd March 5pm – 6.30pm

A great opportunity for students to hear from legal professionals (Solicitors, Paralegals & Barristers) from Allen & Overy, No.5 Chambers, Shoosmiths and Squire Patton Boggs.
