Action Plan

Determine a plan to address any potential school-related safety risks for the student.

Juvenile Justice System

The Division of Juvenile Justice provides education and treatment to California's youthful offenders up to the age of 25 who have the most serious criminal backgrounds and most intense treatment needs. Most juvenile offenders today are committed to county facilities in their home community where they can be closer to their families and local social services that are vital to rehabilitation.

Mandated Report

Mandated reporters are individuals who are mandated by law to report known or suspected child maltreatment. They are primarily people who have contact with children through their employment. Mandated reporters are required by the state of California to report any known or suspected instances of child abuse or neglect to the county child welfare department or to a local law enforcement agency (police or sheriff's department).

Mandated Reporting of CSEC effective Jan. 1, 2016. Call the County of San Diego Child Abuse Hotline (800-344-6000) to file a report.

Pre-Determined School Personnel

School personnel identified as the point of contact who takes a more active role in supporting and advocating for students at risk for or involved in CSEC.
