Parents are charged monthly in advance for every day that their child is scheduled to attend.

We are not able to offer vacation or sick days so we can provide our staff a consistent work schedule.

Payment is required prior to attendance and is due on the first day for the current month.

We send out statements as a courtesy, but know tuition is due on the first of the month even if there is a delay in getting your statement.

All checks are to be made payable to Eagle County Schools.

If tuition payment is not received by the 10th day of the month, we will begin to assess a $10 /day charge on business days only. (Monday through Friday), and this assessment will not exceed 10 business days or $100.
