

CHAPTER #0042 WILMINGTON, NC
2022 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Dear Applicant,

The National Association For Black Veterans (NABVETS) has been a veterans' advocacy organization addressing the unmet needs of minority and economically disadvantaged veterans since its inception in 1973. For over 45 years NABVETS has led the challenge to call attention to the plight of veterans.

Overview of Scholarship: Chapter #0042 located in Wilmington NC, will award one scholarship in 2022 for $500.00. Eligible applicants must be African American Cape Fear Area high school seniors who are children or grandchildren of US military veterans who have been accepted at a four-year college. Applications, completed in entirety, and the required documents must be submitted by March 31, 2022, 11:59 pm via email only to nabvets0042@gmail.com. Please note that applications and required documents will not be accepted after the application deadline.

Other Requirements:

- Demonstrated achievement with a minimum unweighted G.P.A. of 3.0.
 - Provide an official transcript with appropriate authentications.
- Proof of acceptance to an accredited 4-year college or university beginning with the Fall 2021 school semester.
- Two (2) hand-signed letters of recommendation: one from a teacher or guidance counselor and one from a community member, who is not a family member, who has made a positive impact on your life. Contact information must be included with application.
- Headshot Photograph
- Submit one complete scholarship application per e-mail submission; multiple emails for the same application will not be considered.
- Typed essay, using a standard size 12 font of 250-300 words, expressing your opinion on the impact and importance of Lloyd James Austin III being the first African American to serve as U.S. Defense Secretary.
- The applicant's name and "NABVETS 2022 Scholarship" must be included in the subject line of the email.
