

Summer Leadership Nominations

Sophomores:

The Missouri Scholars Academy reflects Missouri's desire to strive for excellence in education at all levels and is held on the campus of the University of Missouri and administered by the University of Missouri Honors College. 2022 nomination: Helena Greim

The Missouri Leadership Seminar provides Missouri high school sophomore students the opportunity to develop their leadership potential and make a difference in the local communities and the world. The leadership seminar is a three-day summer event at the University of Central Missouri in Warrensburg, Missouri.

2022 nomination: Jemel Johnson; alternate: Will Schroeder

Juniors:

Missouri Boys State, established by the American Legion of Missouri, is a statewide leadership and citizenship training program that emphasizes leadership and learning by doing through experiences in the operation and fundamentals of Missouri state government. Student nominations are based on excellence in leadership, citizenship, scholarship and character.

2022 nominations: Andrew Kim

Hannaniah Quinn

Alex Vos

Missouri Girls State is a program established by the American Legion Auxiliary. Student nominations are based on leadership abilities, interest in government, service to others and academics.

2022 nominations: Addie Funk

Ingrid Li

Jiya Singh

Catherine Zhao

Open (and recommended) opportunities:

The Experiment Digital Youth Leadership & Community Service program is a virtual exchange program that is designed to prepare students to be more civically engaged and lead change by connecting high school students in the United States with peers in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region. This fully funded eight-week summer virtual experience teaches high school students to formulate and implement service projects in their local communities.

The National Leadership Conference (NLC), run through the American Youth Foundation, aspires to create confident leaders equipped to make a positive impact on our ever-changing world. This eight-day conference brings together high school and college students from diverse backgrounds, providing them with the opportunity to develop, practice and implement leadership skills that will play an essential role throughout the rest of their lives. The conference will be held June 11 to 18 in Shelby, Michigan. For high school students entering 10th, 11th, and 12th grade.

The Leadership Academy, part of the Gardner Carney Leadership Institute, is offering a leadership camp at Hotchkiss this summer, July 3-16. The curriculum progresses from an examination in self-awareness to group dynamics, communication skills and culminates with a signature story and project plan. The training is designed to help you uncover your own strengths and bolster your leadership skills.