District Highlights – Mr. Esposito

- ▶ Kudos to the SWMHS Poetry Club for a very successful Poetry Festival. Poets Catherine Doty and Tamara Zbrizher performed their poems for over 400 students followed by a Q & A session. Thank you to Mrs. Chuntz for planning and coordinating this wonderful literary activity.
- ▶ Congratulations to the newest inductees to the SWMHS Business National Honor Society and the SWMHS Math National Honor Society. Your hard work and dedication is truly an inspiration. Thank you to Mrs. Berman and Mrs. Vasquez for coordinating these memorable ceremonies.
- ▶ The Bombers Unified Track and Field Meet was held on May 23rd in the SWMHS Stadium. The comradery and friendships between our student athletes was incredible. Go Bombers Unified!
- ▶ Congratulations to the SUES, SMS and SWMHS Multiple Disabilities teachers for partnering with POAC (Parents of Autistic Children) for the 4th year in a row. The walk for a difference walk-a-thon and activities fair was a huge success. Portions of the proceeds will go back to Sayreville in the form of training workshops and training for those affected by Autism.
- ▶ Congratulations to the amazing vocalists of the SWMHS Choir. The Spring Choral Concert was magnificent under the direction of Mr. Craft.
- ▶ The SWMHS Renaissance Barbecue was held on May 16th to honor the students who earned all A's on their 3rd period report cards. Congratulations on your hard work and dedication to being the best students and role models.
- ▶ On Saturday, May 18th the SWMHS National Honor Society held its first NHS Breakfast.
- ▶ Proceeds from this fundraiser go to the Brain Injured Child Foundation. Close to 400 tickets were sold! Congratulations to our NHS Students and Advisors for their incredible success!
- ▶ Congratulations to Katya Kraus who was recently accepted into the Duke University Talent Identification Program after scoring 1110 on the SATs. Katya was the only 7th grader in Middlesex County to take the SAT test.
- ▶ Congratulations to Preet Kadakia who was the recent recipient of the 2019 Allergan Foundation Scholarship. This award is given each year to outstanding National Merit Students.
- ▶ The students, staff and parents at Truman School were recognized by the Middlesex County Food Pantry for collecting over 2500 pounds of food for the pantry. This was the most of any Sayreville School and one of the top ten in Middlesex County.
- ▶ On Tuesday, May 28th St. Peter's Hospital and the Sayreville Police Department held a presentation for the SWMHS students on the opioid addiction epidemic and how addiction can be avoided, also how addiction affects the lives of family and friends.
- ▶ The 4th and 5th Grade Band and Choir from the SUES played and sang their hearts out at their Spring Concert on Wednesday, May 29th. The following evening they showcased their incredible artwork at their Spring Art Show. Truman School held its first ever Art Show on Wednesday, May 29th. Great job our talented students!
- ▶ Congratulations go out to Jennifer LaScala, Art teacher at SWMHS, who will be featured by Art Educators of NJ Association in August as a "Spotlight" art teacher. We would also like to congratulate SWMHS students Amankwah Clinton and Raina Wright, who were selected to attend Google Computer Science Summer Institute this summer. Finally, we commend and congratulate the 2018-19 New Jersey Water Environmental Associations Essay Contest Finalists – Ysabella Dela Cruz (2nd Place), Khushi Patel (3rd Place), and Lasya Bhattiprolu and Sarah [Name] (Runner Ups).
