This week, our Kindergarten and First grade students completed their I-Ready diagnostics and Second through Fifth completed their Aimsweb benchmark testing. Next week, our Kindergarten and First grade students will be completing their Aimsweb benchmark testing and the Second through Fifth grade students will complete their IREADY diagnostics.

Tomorrow, Saturday December 4th, The Pulaski Co. Chamber of Commerce Christmas parade is downtown Somerset starting at 5 pm. The parade starts at Meece Middle school and end at the Judicial Center. A paper with route information is attached to the newsletter.

The Pulaski Co. Public Library will be hosting Breakfast with Santa on Saturday, December 11th from 10 am till 11 am.

This season, we have a lot of activities going on at school and in the community. The last week of school this month, we have a several days that we ask students and staff to dress up.

Monday, December 13 - Ugly Christmas Sweater day.

Tuesday, December 14 - Wear Red and Green.

Wednesday December 15 - Wear a favorite Holiday hat, Hat band or Tree topper.

Thursday, December 16 - Grinch day: Wear anything Green or Grinch related.

Friday, December 17 - Wear school appropriate pajamas: Pajama Day.

The PTA is also sponsoring a Santa's Workshop during the week of December 13 - 17. Students can shop for their family members. More information will follow at a later date.

SAVE the DATE: The Christmas concert date for our school has been scheduled for Tuesday, December 14th.

All students and staff will get to enjoy the concert during school. Parents are invited to attend the concert that evening at 6:30 pm.

Ms. Crawford's Kindergarten class enjoyed creating a Christmas tree activity today and got to eat their tree with ice cream. Students earned this for making gains in their I-Ready Diagnostic testing.

The vision for Southern Elementary students is that every student is proficient and prepared for success by becoming college and career ready.
