DISTRICT HIGHLIGHTS

* Congratulations and an amazing job well done to Ishani Patel, an 8th Grade Student at the Sayreville Middle School who took the PSATs and received outstanding scores, especially for an 8th grade student. Ishani scored 81% higher than high school sophomores in Critical Reading, 97% higher than high school sophomores in Mathematics and 97% higher than high school sophomores in Writing Skills! This is an amazing accomplishment by a remarkable young lady and we are proud that she is part of the Sayreville School District family. Congratulations, Ishani!

* We are pleased to inform you that 43 Sayreville DECA students attended the NJ DECA Regional Competition on January 9, 2014 and won a total of 31 awards. The following students won awards in their chosen business and technical event areas and are now eligible to compete at the NJ State Competitions in March 2014. These students have worked very hard beyond the regular school day to prepare for these competitive events. Sayreville War Memorial High School, again, showed an excellent winning percentage!

* Mr. Edward Aguiles, Principal at Eisenhower Elementary School would like to recognize and thank Mr. Richard Tola, Health and Physical Education Teacher at the Eisenhower Elementary School for his outstanding work in running the “Jump Rope for Heart” this year. This year, he did not want to ask the PTO for help so he handed out all of the prizes and paperwork himself, which is huge considering the amount of work that is involved in putting on a program like this. Sometimes, when someone continually does great things and makes them look so easy, he/she is not recognized. We just wanted to express how impressed Principal Aguiles and the Sayreville School District is with his effort. He is currently working toward his administrative certification and tenacity and diligence like he displayed toward this task are just two of the factors which we believe will make him an administrator we can be proud of one day. Mr. Tola certainly is a teacher we can be proud of right now!

* Sayreville War Memorial High School students, Amy Walczak, Alyce Brewer and Helen Kwok received Gold Key Awards and were also awarded with an exhibition of their jewelry work through the annual Scholastic Art & Writing Awards at the Montclair Art Museum which began on February 13, 2014 and will run through March 9, 2014. Also, Elizabeth Moreira and Nakiya Wong-Chong both received Silver Key recognition. This year, a total of 4,500 works were submitted. Amy, Alyce and Helen were in the top 5%. Congratulations, to all on a job well done.
