

Maine School of Science and Mathematics

A Residential Community of Academic Excellence

ANTICIPATED OPENING US History/Social Science Instructor

Instructor - US History/Social Science: The Maine School of Science and Mathematics (MSSM) seeks a self-motivated individual with excellent communication and interpersonal skills to guide its US History program. The Instructor will be responsible for teaching three sections of US History (at the university level) and an additional History/Social Science Elective.

History courses at MSSM are writing intensive courses that focus on excellent research and communication skills that go beyond rote textbook instruction. A willingness to explore multiple perspectives in critical and meaningful ways is crucial, as is an awareness of the evolving field and a willingness to introduce students to the complexities of writing about history.

Qualifications: A successful candidate must have at least two years of successful teaching experience in a formal, academic setting. Preference will be given to individuals holding a Master's Degree in US History or a related field. In addition to teaching responsibilities, faculty members are also required to advise a group of students, host a student club or activity, and interact with colleagues and students in this vibrant academic setting.

For consideration, please submit a cover letter, MSSM Teaching Application, curriculum vitae, 3 letters of recommendation and a short description of teaching philosophy to the address below. Sample syllabi are welcome as well. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

If you are interested in this position and meet the eligibility requirements, please complete and return the appropriate MSSM application for employment (teaching) <https://www.mssm.org/about/employment-opportunities> a cover letter, curriculum vitae, transcript, a short description of teaching philosophy, and three letters of recommendation to email: mssm@mssm.org or fax at 207-325-3340 ATTN: Tracy Moore with US History/Social Science Instructor in the Subject Line.
