PREP MARIANAPOLIS

Around Campus

It was a busy first trimester for Golden Knights! Click the links below to learn more — and keep an eye out for the upcoming Winter Refresh edition of the Marianapolis Magazine for more on happenings across campus.

During the fall, students:

- Focused on sustainability efforts through on-campus projects and more
- Returned to competitive sports
- Participated in a new rec-sports program
- Danced the night away at semi-formal
- Performed in New Stars are Born, the first in-person music concert since 2019! Watch the full concert here.
- Served the community — by collecting food donations for TEEG and toy donations for the Tommy Toy Fund
- Took the stage in the first dance show of the year, Humble & Kind
- Celebrated A Very Marianapolis Christmas

Marianapolis Magazine

In case you missed it! Check out the 2020-2021 edition of the Marianapolis Magazine here. The issue highlights last year's changes around campus to ensure the health and safety of the community during the pandemic — allowing for a vibrant and innovative experience as domestic and some international students returned to campus for in-person learning, while others continued learning virtually. The issue also features alumni working on the frontlines of the pandemic — detailing their experiences and the many challenges posed by COVID-19. Take a look!

Stay tuned for the Winter Refresh edition of the Marianapolis Magazine — coming soon! The next full issue will be published online this summer.

Virtual Speaker Series

During the pandemic, the Alumni Office offered a virtual speaker series, allowing alumni to deepen their connection with beloved teachers, aspects of their faith, the current student experience, and more. Additional events will be offered in the future, both in-person and virtually. Have suggestions for future events? Send them to alumni@marianapolis.org.

The Fund for Marianapolis Update

Whether golfing in this year's tournament, supporting an appeal, honoring a classmate, or buying a Thanksgiving pie, a heartfelt thank you to all who contributed.
