Typefaces are first and foremost a means of conveying content. Even if they are generally not consciously perceived, typefaces have specific characteristics and qualities which make them a distinctive element within a design system.

Three types of typeface are used. Use of other typefaces is not allowed.

TERTIARY COLORS

GREEN

ISZL Blue is the official and principal color of ISZL.

The Cyan tone is used for the brand line (Respect, Motivate, Achieve) and is appropriate as a contrasting tone to be used when necessary.

Blue and cyan can be flattened by 10% at a time. Black and paper-white are also used.

ISZL LOGO FILE FORMATS

ISZL logos exist within numerous colour systems and file formats to ensure colours align with printing formats.

Logos file types (both Full logo and Abbreviated versions) should be selected based upon printing applications:

RGB: For most electronic office applications (PowerPoint, Word, Web, Email).

CMYK: For all 4-colour printing applications

Pantone: For all 2-colour printing applications

Black: For any black/white applications where colour printing is not an option.

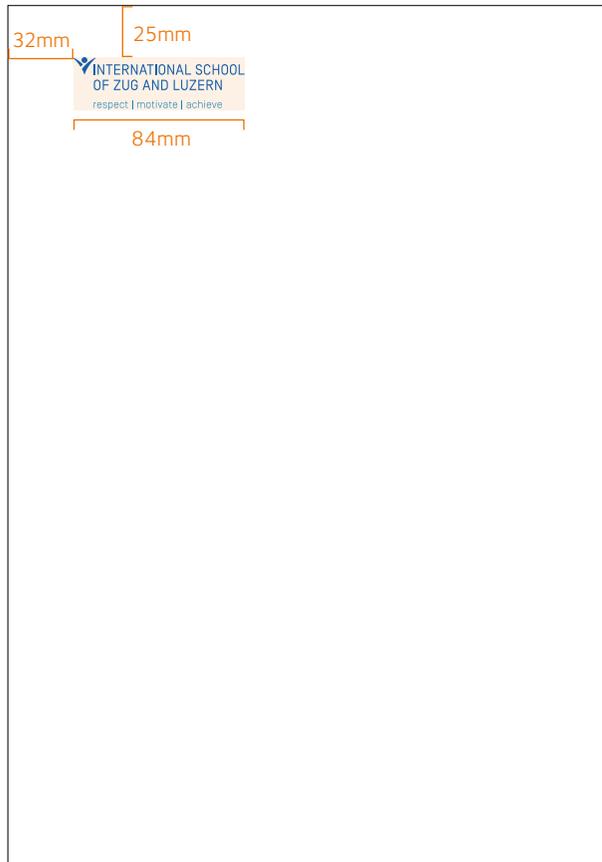

Negative: For any reverse-colour printing applications (logo in white)

These files come in numerous formats that can be used in various design applications including .jpg, .png, .ai and .eps.

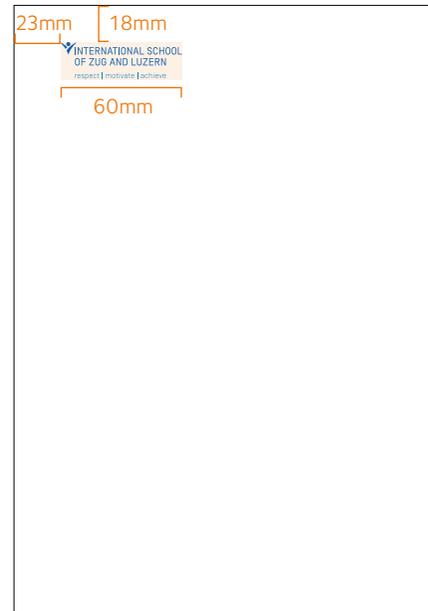

Most ISZL staff using the logo for classroom and communication purposes will use the RGB .jpg files.

11 | Logo Location and Spacing Guidelines

A3 Sheets

A4 Sheets

For all logo use on printed paper and electronic mediums, logos should be used according to the following guidelines to ensure the logo is positioned correctly and is proportionate to content and document size.

The logo should always be placed in the top left corner.

In exceptional cases, the length of the logo can vary by +/- 10 mm. However, the space from the top left corner must always be respected.

For landscape formats, the same dimensions and spacings apply as for portrait formats.
