***This calendar is for 260-Day Employees***

If you look at the bolded and underlined dates, these are your regular work days. The bold, underlined, and italicized dates are your extended hours work days. If you were to add it all up, you will see that you actually work less than 260 days. It is actually 250 days of work this year. You also get ten vacation days. So to be clear, we pay you for working 260 days, but you will only work 240 days this year. You will also still get your five state days and three local days to use as needed on top of all of that.
