

District of Origin Sign-Off for Student Applying for Open Enrollment to Great Oaks

By completing and signing this form, your school district acknowledges that the above student is applying to attend a Great Oaks program as an out of district applicant. You understand that the student, if accepted for enrollment at Great Oaks, will remain enrolled at your school district and that credits they earn at Great Oaks will be recommended for the student's requirements to graduate through your school district. Students are required to provide their own transportation and stay on track toward graduation. Students unable to fulfill academic, attendance, and discipline requirements may be withdrawn from Great Oaks back to their district building. We will contact you once their acceptance status is determined.
