

Minutes of the Delphos City School’s Board of Education Finance Committee Meeting:

February 7, 2018

The finance committee of the Board of Education of the Delphos City Schools of Allen and Van Wert counties met at 7:00PM on Wednesday at the City Municipal building for a special finance meeting with the following members present: Andy North & Erica Pimpas, Treasurer Brad Rostorfer and Superintendent Kevin Wolfe also present were board members Terence Keaser, & Jamey Wisher, Principal Robert Hohlbein, along with the City Council, Mayor, city Auditor and a few citizens.

City Council President Nicole Coil welcomed everyone to the special meet of City Council, and everyone stood for the pledge of allegiance.

Council recognized school board President Robert North who thanked the council for the opportunity for the two boards to meet and discuss the future and how both can work together to accomplish great things for the citizens of both the City of Delphos and the Delphos City School District.

Mr. North asked Mr. Rostorfer to present the current position of the school from a real estate tax stand point. He gave a brief synopsis of two renewal levies to be presented in 2019 and that the only other renewal would not be due again until 2022. He gave a brief update on the valuation numbers received from the Allen County Auditor, and then asked for questions. After fielding a few questions the conversation turned to the tax burden of people of Delphos along with the many ways in which the two boards already worked together.

The school board members asked a few questions of the City council of the future plans and needs that the City is facing.

Both groups concluded with appreciation of the opportunity and agreed to try and meet together again and maybe on a more regular basis.

The Council officially adjourned their meeting a little after 8:00p.m.
