400-Level Courses

400-level courses involve a level of rigor that requires a strong understanding of foundational work in the field, and as such require departmental approval - the specific requirements are outlined in individual course descriptions. Students who wish to apply for 400-level courses should discuss their current work with the appropriate teachers and department chair, and should discuss the workload that will be involved with their advisor. Programs requesting more than 3 full-credit 400-level courses are subject to grade dean review.
