Ninth Grade

- Evan Martinez! Evan has stepped up in a huge way, taking on a new instrument to help the Concert Band. Evan has taken charge of the section and plays well beyond his year on the instrument. Thank you and great job Evan! ~A. Woodard
- Summer Brady! Summer has been doing a great job at school, her grades, attendance, and overall behavior has been on par with what we expect from our students. Last week, she also went above and beyond by turning in a lost phone she found. Keep working hard Summer! ~J. Paz

Tenth Grade

- Noe Hurtado! Noe is the kindest student! He always comes to class eager to learn and is happy to work with his classmates. ~J. Wallace
- Katelyn Romero! Katelyn has grown more confident in her saxophone playing through Jazz Band. She tries her hardest every day and continues to grow as a musician. Great job Katelyn! ~A. Woodard
- Mercy Esquivel! When Mercy comes into my office, I know I am going to laugh. She has a great sense of humor. She is very animated when she tells a story that I can visually see what she is saying. She is a sweet young lady whom I am glad to know. ~J. Youngblood
- Flor Resendiz! Flor has been doing a great job at school. She is one credit away from becoming a junior, and still has this semester's classes to get credit for. Last week she also went above and beyond by showing her integrity after turning in a set of air pods that she found in the cafeteria. Thank you for showing exemplary behavior Flor! ~J. Paz
- Leobardo Hernandez! Leobardo has done a 360 degree change this year. He is open minded and is very willing to accomplish his tasks of getting caught up. He has completed his work and is working on keeping his grades up. I am proud of him!! ~J. Youngblood
- Emily Martinez! Emily is so sweet and an excellent team player; she works well with everyone! ~J. Wallace
