Fourth Grade

- Jesse Sumrall! Jesse is always coming to my classroom with a desire to learn. He tries his hardest and refuses to give up and his effort shows. Great job Jesse! ~M. Smith

Fifth Grade

- Alex Leija! Alex showed a new side of himself last week during tutorials. He was partnered with a 4th grader he doesn't know, and I was so happy to see the way they worked together. Alex displayed a tremendous amount of patience and kindness with the other students. He listened to the other student's input, helped him with spelling, and kept a good attitude the whole time. Alex didn't complain about, or show any negativity towards, the situation. I am beyond proud of Alex and what I witnessed! ~E. Antenangeli
- DaKoda Turner! Dakoda has always been a kind and reliable student. DaKoda started off with me as a quiet 2nd grader, and has transformed into a strong leader with a fierce and awesome personality. She faces challenges head on and helps those around her do the same. I am amazed at her growth, especially in this last year. I know DaKoda will go on to do great things! ~E. Antenangeli
