Wishing all a Blessed Holy Week

The OLG Library wishes all families a Blessed Holy Week with their loved ones. The OLG Library is proud to have a designated Catholic section filled with books on the lives of the saints as well as church teaching. Some possible reads: The Life of Jesus: An Illustrated Rosary by Mary Billingsley, The Imitation of Christ for Children by Elizabeth Ficocelli, and the Holy Land in the Time of Jesus by Norman Kotker. YouTube, a resource available to all, has a playlist of instrumental Lent music: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=suBd_c9oA9w

The Library also invites you to check out our movie section with DVDs on the life of Jesus and classic Veggie Tales hits.

“Lock up your libraries if you like; but there is no gate, no lock, no bolt that you can set upon the freedom of my mind.” – Virginia Woolf

Books about Justice

A search for “justice” brings up numerous books on the Supreme Court and Supreme Court Justices. Fiction books that come up include the Rangers Apprentice series by John Flanagan, The Mystery of the Clockwork Sparrow by Katherine Woodfine, and the Amazing Power of Ashur Fine by Donald Sobol. Reading a book with a virtue theme is one method for examining the virtue of the month.

Progress on Student Writers’ Center

The Library is proud to include the app Book Creator in its curriculum. Book Creator is an educational platform that treats students as authors. Students are part of a virtual classroom library with a code. Moreover, the products that students create can become part of a student’s portfolio. The basic version is free.
