Have a blessed Easter!

Forty Hours Devotion April 24-27th: In remembering our Catholic heritage during the first preparation year leading to the Diocesan Golden Jubilee, each parish in the Diocese of Arlington will celebrate Forty Hours.

The Forty Hours Devotion is an opportunity to gather as a community before the Blessed Sacrament and pray before the Lord in solemn Adoration. It gives us time to deepen our appreciation of the importance of the mystery of the eucharist in our lives. The Blessed Sacrament is exposed, and over a few days, we are given the opportunity to assemble in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

Our celebration of this 40 Hours Devotion will take place around the Feast Day of Our Lady of Good Counsel, April 26th. Sunday, April 24th, we open the Devotion with 5 pm Mass and have Adoration until 8 pm.

Monday, April 25th, Adoration after the 8:30 am Mass until 8 pm, with Evening Prayer celebrated at 7 pm.

Tuesday, April 26th, Adoration after the 8:30 am Mass until 8 pm, with Evening Prayer celebrated at 7 pm.

Wednesday, April 27th, Adoration after the 8:30 am Mass and continue until 4 pm.

Signup www.signupgenius.com/go/30E044EA8A72EA7FC1-40hours.

In the celebration of the Forty Hours Devotion, we can witness a deeper understanding of our belief in the Eucharist. The Eucharist is first and foremost about our participation in the celebration of the Mass. At Mass, we participate directly in the Paschal Mystery of Christ and, by the grace of the Holy Spirit, unite our lives with the sacrifice of Christ on the cross. We come to Mass to praise and thank God for all he has done for us. We are nourished in Word and Sacrament, leading us to live out our lives more fully in Christ.

The Forty Hours devotion gives witness to our belief in the Real Presence of Christ. As the community gathers in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in this way, it witnesses to our belief as Church.

April 24th is Divine Mercy Sunday. Help us celebrate the Feast of the Divine Mercy and join us in the Chapel for the Divine Mercy Chaplet on Sunday, April 24th at 3:00 pm. This feast was established by Pope St. John Paul II at a time when the entire Catholic Church is invited to celebrate God's mercy, as shown through the ministry and sacrifices of His Son, Jesus Christ. Jesus appeared to Sister Faustina Kowalska with rays radiating from His Heart. The two rays denote Blood and Water. As we prepare our hearts to celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, please join with prayers as we work together to radiate the message of God's mercy to a world so desperately in need of it. Learn more about the Divine Mercy Devotion and place your innermost trust in Jesus and permit him to fill you with the graces He so wants for all of us. Lord, as You guided St. Faustina, guide us in spreading the message of Your mercy. A popular devotion related to the Divine Mercy is to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet every day at 3 o'clock to experience true trust, true peace, and true love. You can find the Chaplet online <http://www.thedivinemercy.org/message/devotions/praythechaplet.php>.

Although the Chaplet can be said anytime, Our Lord asked specifically that it be prayed at 3pm (the Hour of Divine Mercy, which is the hour that He died). Sign up for the daily reflection at TheDivineMercy.org/dmddsignup.

Live
Jesus

A person who exemplifies Live Jesus is Fran Davenport. She is very generous with her time and is committed to helping those less fortunate. From liturgical ministry as a Lector, Resurrection Choir member, Usher, and Funeral Minister to her role with the Society of St. Vincent De Paul to being a member of the Our Lady's Quilters. Fran brings hope, love, and encouragement to parishioners and the community in her dedication to facilitating the Adopt-a-Family Christmas program, as well as her dedicated willingness to facilitate prayer groups and adult bible studies. At the beginning of the pandemic, she stepped up to sew masks where there was a huge need. She so graciously does it all with such contagious enthusiasm, grace, competency, and with a smile. Fran frequently is joined in support by her #1 cheerleader and husband, Brian, as well as numerous others whom she so cleverly enlists to lend a hand. Thank you, Fran, for living Jesus so well! If you would like to nominate someone, please send their name and why they should be highlighted to info@olgcva.org.

Healing Circles

Healing Circles provide a safe environment for those affected by trauma to heal through active sharing and listening with an open heart and mind. People who have been harmed directly, loved ones of those who have been harmed, people who may know perpetrators, people who have lost a pastor because of allegations of abuse or those who are upset about the scandal as a whole are welcome. To support all of us affected by this scandal, the SJN ACTION Committee will be hosting Healing Circles focused on this difficult topic. A Healing Circle is not therapy, which is provided by a mental health professional.

Registration is required. To chose your preference for a date and format, click here. You can also watch a video of a Healing Circle in action.

The deadline for making a reservation is Monday, April 25. The Book Swap Table will be there to receive books and jigsaw puzzles you wish to donate (nothing else, please!), and we hope you’ll pick up a few to take home with you.

MEET ME AT THE MOVIES – This month’s Senior Movie Day is on Wednesday, April 27, at the Reston Bow Tie Cinema. The featured film will be “Belfast,” set in 1969. Surrounded by sporadic violence and growing danger, 9-year-old Buddy finds himself confronted with the reality of sectarian conflict. His family must come face-to-face with a nearly impossible life-altering decision: stay or go? The film is based on the true story events of Kenneth Branagh’s childhood. He also directed this movie.

The doors open at 9:15 am, there’ll be free donuts and coffee, and door prizes will be distributed before the film begins at 10 am. Bring a mask and park in the Green garage. Validation for free parking will be available in the theatre lobby. This event is sponsored by the Reston Association in cooperation with Reston Town Center and is open to anyone over the age of 55.

NEW TRIP – Vienna Parks & Recreation is offering this mature adult trip to Hillwood Estate on Wednesday, May 4. Nestled in the hills of northwest Washington, DC, Hillwood is the home of Marjorie Merriweather Post, a legendary hostess, pioneering businesswoman, diplomat, philanthropist, and distinguished collector. You’ll enjoy all that Hillwood has to offer, including a docent-led tour of the mansion and gardens, an elegant meal in the café, and complete your experience with a stop in the museum shop. The buffet lunch is included in the trip fee, which is $80 for Vienna town residents, $100 for everyone else. Use your WebTrac account to reserve 441240-A1, or stop by the Vienna Community Center to do it in person. Questions? Call 703-255-6360.

CANCELED STAMPS REMINDER – These are no longer being collected at our parish. Instead, you’re encouraged to send your canceled stamps to the Stamp Ministry with the Poor of the Sisters of the Holy Cross. They ask that you save stamps that have their perforations intact, are not too heavily canceled, and are not torn, cut or stained. They request you leave at least ¼” on each side of the stamp when cutting it from the envelope. This is extremely important. If the stamps are too closely trimmed, they’re automatically discarded.

You’ll save your time, effort, and money by discarding the following less desirable stamps: those with small U.S. flags, star ribbon, the Liberty Bell; nonprofit and first-class presort stamps (those with an eagle, USA, or stars and stripes), and those recent low-denomination stamps from fundraising appeals, such as various fruits. They are plentiful and have no resale value.

Their wish list shows off or on paper U.S. stamps, especially commemorative ones; foreign stamps off or on paper, foreign mint stamp sheets and blocks, U.S. mint stamp sheets, U.S. mint strips and plate blocks, album collections, first-day covers, and postcards. Send them to Stamp Ministry, 100 Augusta Hall-Saint Mary’s, Notre Dame, IN 46556. I will also accept them at a Seasoned Citizens luncheon.

FREE HOME REPAIRS – These are for older and disabled residents of Fairfax County and are offered by the Department of Housing and Community Development’s Home Repair for the Elderly Program (HREP). It provides minor home repairs and/or accessibility modifications to eligible low- and moderate-income seniors and individuals with disabilities, helping residents protect and maintain their homes and their independence.

It provides skilled labor and up to $1,000 in material costs to complete small handyman-sized projects for qualified homeowners. Typical services include minor electrical and plumbing repair, window and door repair, downspout and gutter repair, installation of grab bars, railings, and other accessibility devices, and more. HREP is a free program for eligible applicants. For more information, visit www.fairfaxcounty.gov/housing/resident-services and select “Home Repair for the Elderly” or call 703-246-5179, TTY 711.
