Across the country and in every community there are students who have felt left out and alone at one time or another. Each year in September, thousands of schools and youth organizations nationwide participate in Start with Hello Week to celebrate the amazing work of educators, students, and community members in building learning environments that include all students.

Start with Hello Week

September 20th - September 24th

The staff and students at Clairton Elementary are participating in Start with Hello Week again this year. This is a national movement designed to teach and practice skills that create a culture of inclusion and connectedness. Every day this week, we will come together to show positivity and practice a different part of the Sandy Hook Promise within our school!

MONDAY Sept 20	H	Say HELLO to EVERYONE you see!
TUESDAY Sept 21	E	ENCOURAGE others with a SMILE .
WEDNESDAY Sept 22	L	LEARN the NAMES of all classmates.
THURSDAY Sept 23	L	LOOK for students who NEED a friend.
FRIDAY Sept 24	O	Take every OPPORTUNITY to be the KIND kid! Say hello! Smile at others! Call classmates by name! Include others!

Promise to show positivity and include everyone!
