As part of a Title I School, you, as a parent, have access to the following:

- Be involved in the development of the written parent and family engagement policy
- Have the school be flexible when arranging meetings, so you and your family can possibly attend
- A description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school
- Clear understanding of the academic assessment used to measure student progress
- Clear understanding of achievement levels of the challenging State academic standards
- To request opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of your children
- To be part of the School-Parent Compact that we sign at the annual Fall conference
