The image displays a grid of approximately 6 rows and 3 columns of faint, illegible markings. These markings appear to be bleed-through from the reverse side of the page, possibly representing characters or symbols in an unknown script. The grid is centered on the page and is bordered by faint lines.

Nancy posing for a screen test..
 Ruth the center of the gossip...
 George Neal and Mary Elizabeth were Mrs. Quinlan's "big moment" Charles, Eleanor, and Thelma and Shorty when love was young...
 "Evie" going some place?.. "Jimmie"
 and "Johnny" it ain't no more...
 We couldn't do without our Farmer and our Coach... Jerry, Sue, and Lillian just having finished lunch
 Johnny, you poor little infant...
 Natha Lee, the background is pleasing... Dolly, Clara, and Margaret three of a kind... Mama Doss... Little Gest, Gerry, Doris, and Julia Verne out for a ride...
 Virginia has always been cute...
 Smith, Edmonds, and Smith... Who is this anyway "Peet" or Ruth?
 Jimmie, I always did know you'd give good competition in the Donkey baseball game...
