To the Students of Rockdale High School:

Since this is your first attempt to launch an annual in several years, we are rejoicing with you in this activity and hope that this activity will live up to your expectancy.

I feel that much progress has been made by the students of Rockdale School in the past several years. Your outlook on life has been broadened; your objectives have become more serious and I feel that in the country. A school system cannot be made by the administrators alone, but is made by the cooperative effort of the administrators, students, teachers and parents and by all working together in a concentrated effort, the type of school which will be a credit to the community will evolve. As students of this school, you must labor with the firm belief in yourselves and the man who truly believes in himself and so lives that idea each day can truly say, "I am the captain of my soul".

To the Seniors who will leave at the end of the year, a deep feeling of regret pervades on all our minds as we attempt to say a parting word to you in this yearbook. We all are rejoicing with you over your success but regret that you cannot tarry with us longer for you have inspired and animated our spirits through your happy and optimistic fellowship. May you always give a life of service to those with whom you come in contact each day, and in so doing, gain a crown of greatness which cannot be destroyed by the agencies of time.

Sincerely,

Treasured Memories

Your yearbook is a store of treasured memories. The oft repeated thrill of recollection which accompanies each new search through its pages will many times repay you for the care and consideration which has gone into its creation.

We are proud of the part we have had in the production of this book. It indicates the wealth of ideas and ability which have made possible the long record of our school annual achievement.
