SHADOWS

Have you ever stopped and really taken a good look at your shadow? Your shadow follows you everywhere. It reflects your actions, your ways, and most of all your personality.

If you will follow the shadows throughout these pages, they may reflect the many wonderful times you have had at R. H. S.

The Staff, in editing this 15th edition of THE LAIR, uses as its theme in 1957-58, "Shadows."

"An institution is but the lengthened shadow of all who have been a part of that institution."

The Rockdale High School Campus in September, 1957.

Students from all the surrounding communities are enrolled each fall in Rockdale schools where, on campus of thirty-five acres, they experience a plan of education that stresses the importance of every individual, and tries to meet the needs of the pupils.

THE LAIR,

Volume XV,

was compiled by Lair Staff,

Rockdale High School.

Dedication

MRS. DOROTHY LUCKEY

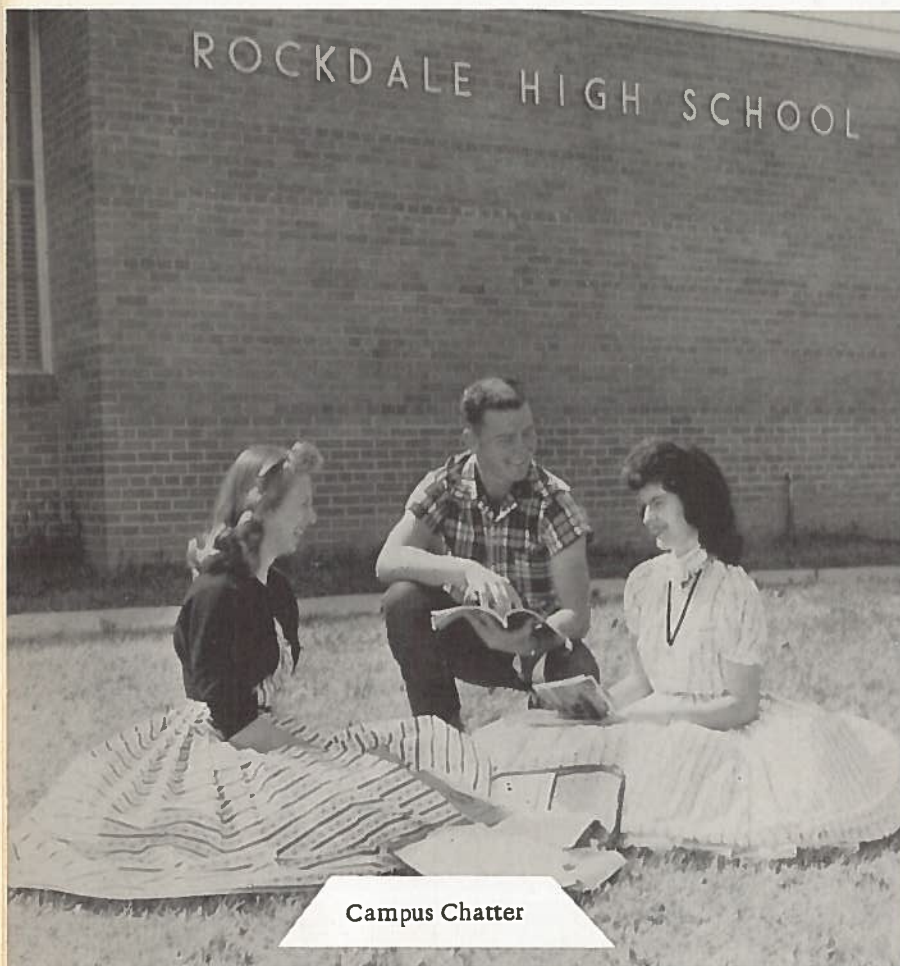

When the shadows of life have lengthened, and the pages of this annual are faded and forgotten, there will still remain in our minds the memories of the devotion, loyalty, and friendship that this woman has given to the past and present students of Rockdale High School; therefore, we the Annual Staff of the 1958 Lair dedicate this 15th edition to Mrs. Dorothy Luckey.

Government class officers and Dr. Carroll.

Hi-Li Club Officers and Gov. Price Daniel.

A wonderful field trip. Where? Austin. When? November 11, 1957. Who? U. S. Government Class and the Hi-Li Clubs. Why? To observe State Legislature in session and to take a guided tour to places of interest in Austin. The groups were guests of Rep. Herman Yezak.

In Rockdale Schools We Have Various

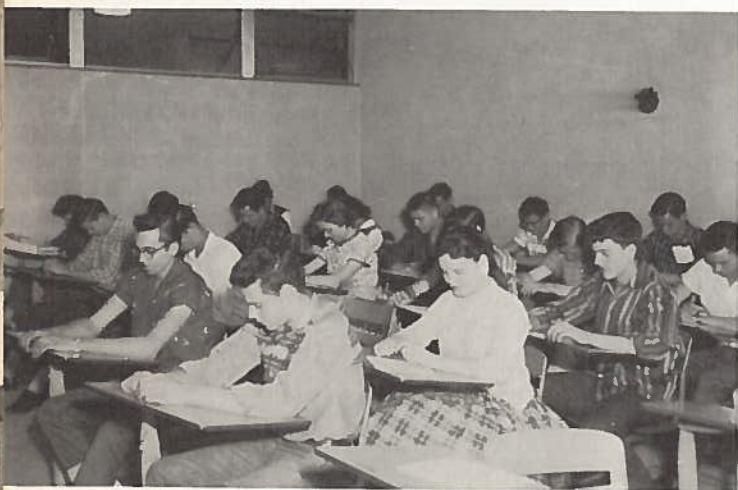

Registration: Mr. Maxwell takes time out from his many chores to register Mary Holliman. Registration is considered a headache for the faculty, as well as the Student, but it is a necessary evil. The registration of R. H. S. is 283 students.

STUDY TIME

Wayne Springer and Gary Sales take time out to study for an Algebra II test. These boys may be on the honor roll.

Solutions are found through prayer. Rockdale Students begin the school day with a devotional.

Pep Rallies spur us to a victory.

Mr. Birchfield says, "Know the car inside and out--How to change a tire--When to buy gas. Study the Drivers' Handbook, etc. Graduation day at the State Department."

THE COUNSELING PROGRAM

The Counseling Services are in charge of the faculty advising program.

In and out of the classroom, the aptitudes and interests of students are studied by advisors whose objective is to help the student discover and develop his talents.

For the student who wishes to equip himself for a career, the Career Day Program was held for the first time in R. H. S. on March 5, 1958 when more than 500 students heard Occupations Divisions map out immediate and future opportunities in given fields and of the personalities and aptitudes best suited to varying kinds of employment.

The Students Speak

Rockdale Students respect the leadership of Mr. J. M. Moorman.

Democracy is shown in Action as the Student Committee works with the Administration on school policies.

Many matters occupy the attention of Rockdale students. They bring their problems, questions, and recommendations to the Superintendent or other faculty members. They plan new campus projects and report new campus needs.

SWTSTC., and Texas A&M, University of Houston, and Baylor U.

Mr. Moorman, Superintendent of Rockdale Schools, friend and advisor to more than 1400 boys and girls, and to 62 teachers, is recognized as a fine school man.

There has been a wonderful growth in scholarship, financial condition, and spiritual thinking under his leadership. Because of your wholehearted interest in Rockdale Schools and your untiring efforts to improve it, the students and teachers say, "Thanks to you, Mr. Moorman."

"Where there is much light, the shadows are deepest." . . . Goethe

The Lair Staff members are very appreciative of the support given by those business firms whose advertisements appear in this yearbook. We appreciate their contributions not only toward the publication of the present volume of the Lair, but also for their constant support of Rockdale Public Schools. These, our friends, deserve our patronage in recognition of their excellent products and services. In appreciation of their loyalty to our school, we thank them.

The Lair Staff

The Sponsor feels deeply grateful to those people who gave so much of themselves to make this book a reality. Publishing an annual is anything but a one-person job. It takes more people than just the editor. To everyone who worked, I extend my sincerest thanks.

Nora Duncum
