THE
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SEVENTY EDITION OF THE
ROCKDALE HIGH SCHOOL

LAIR

MR. GUS JOHNSON
TAX ASSESSOR-COLLECTOR
1952-1969

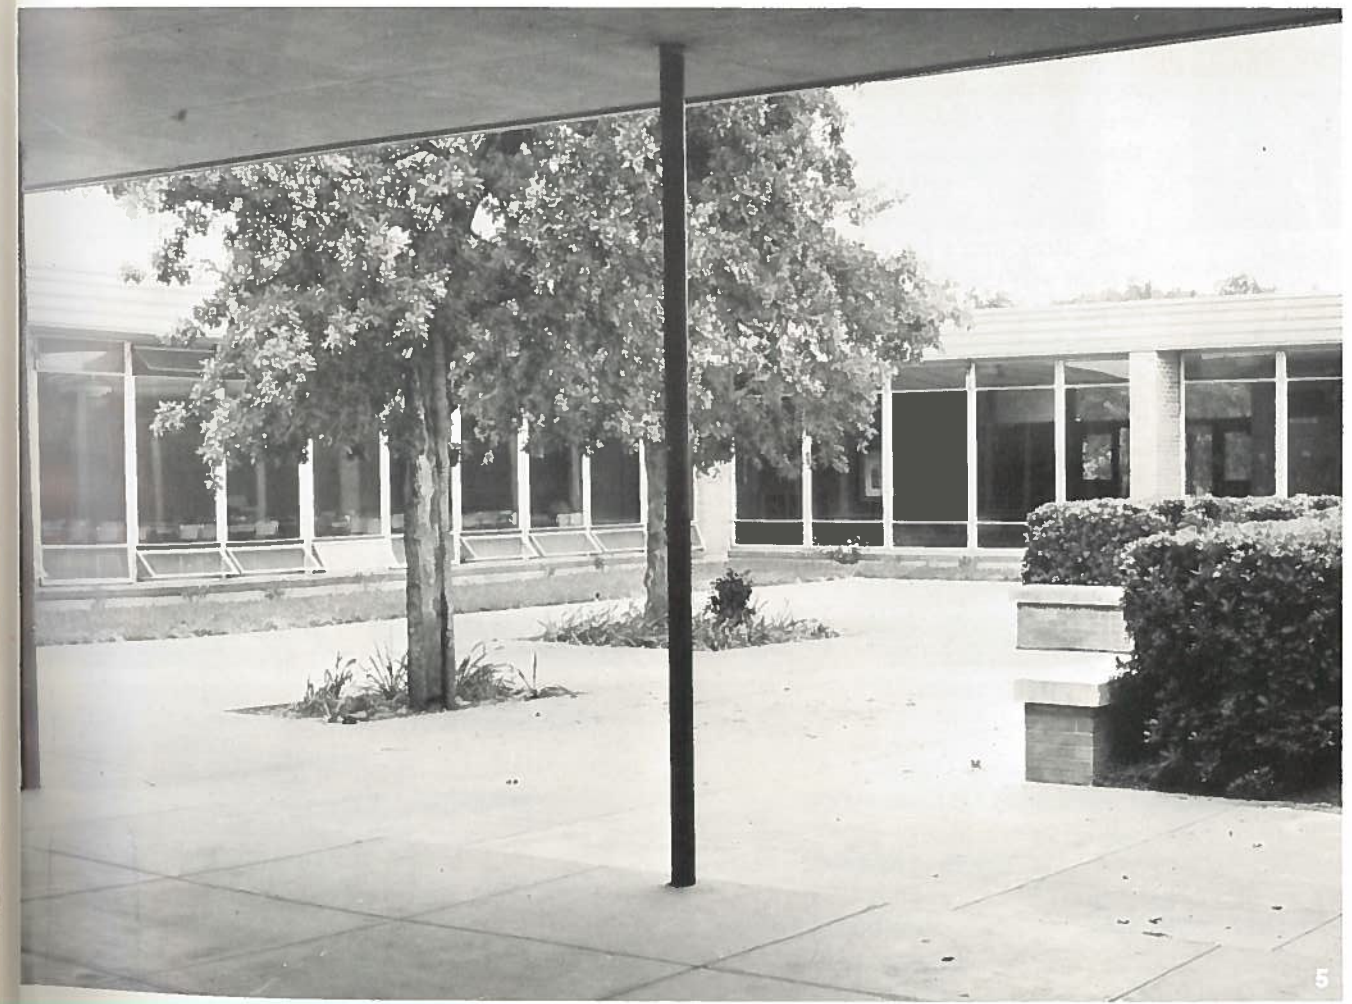

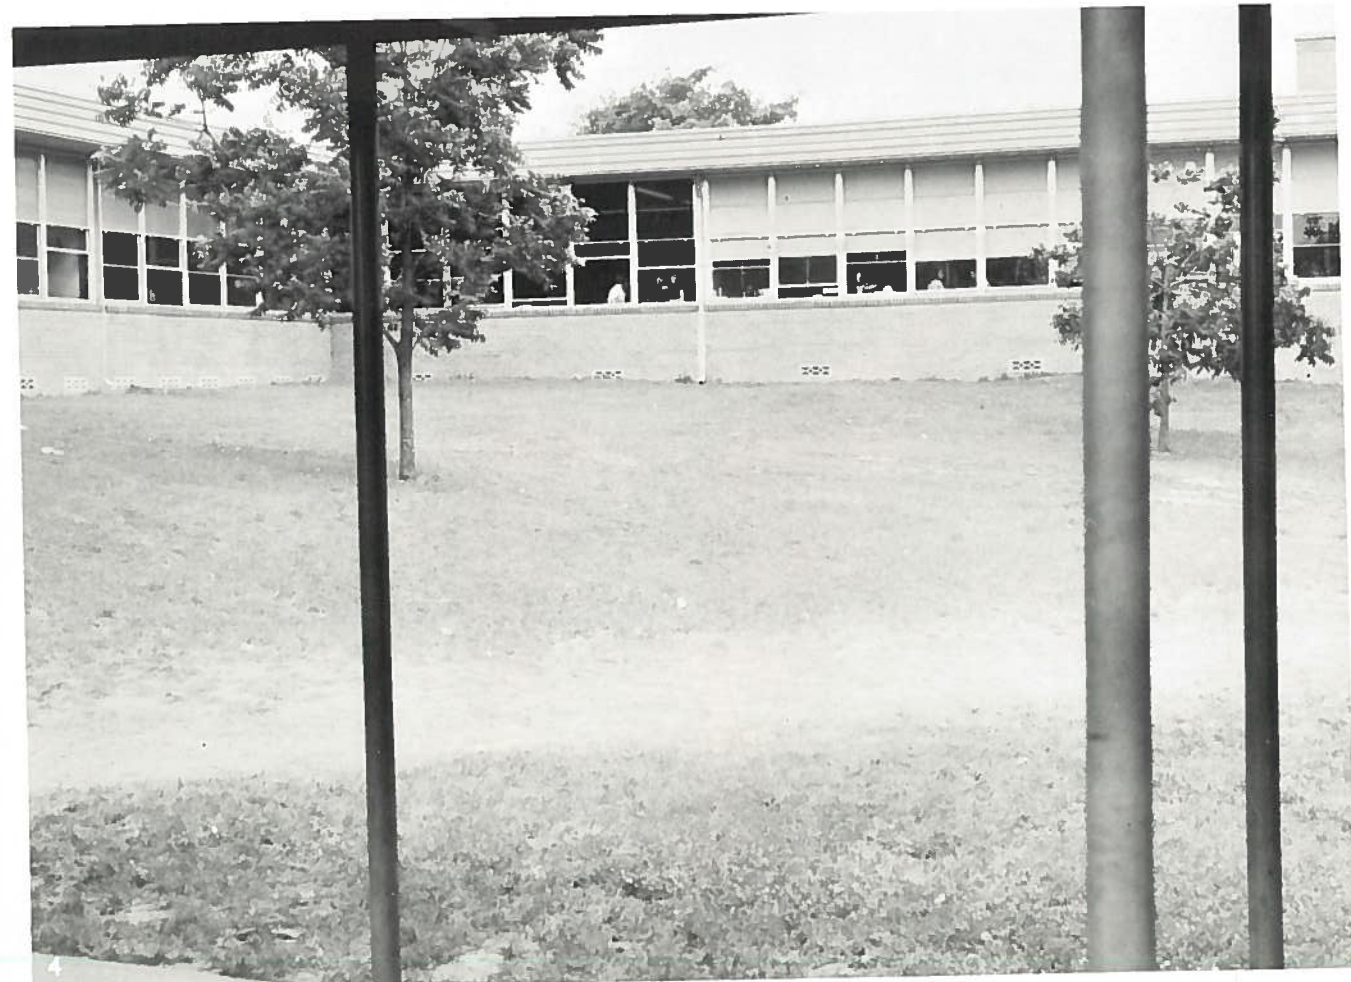

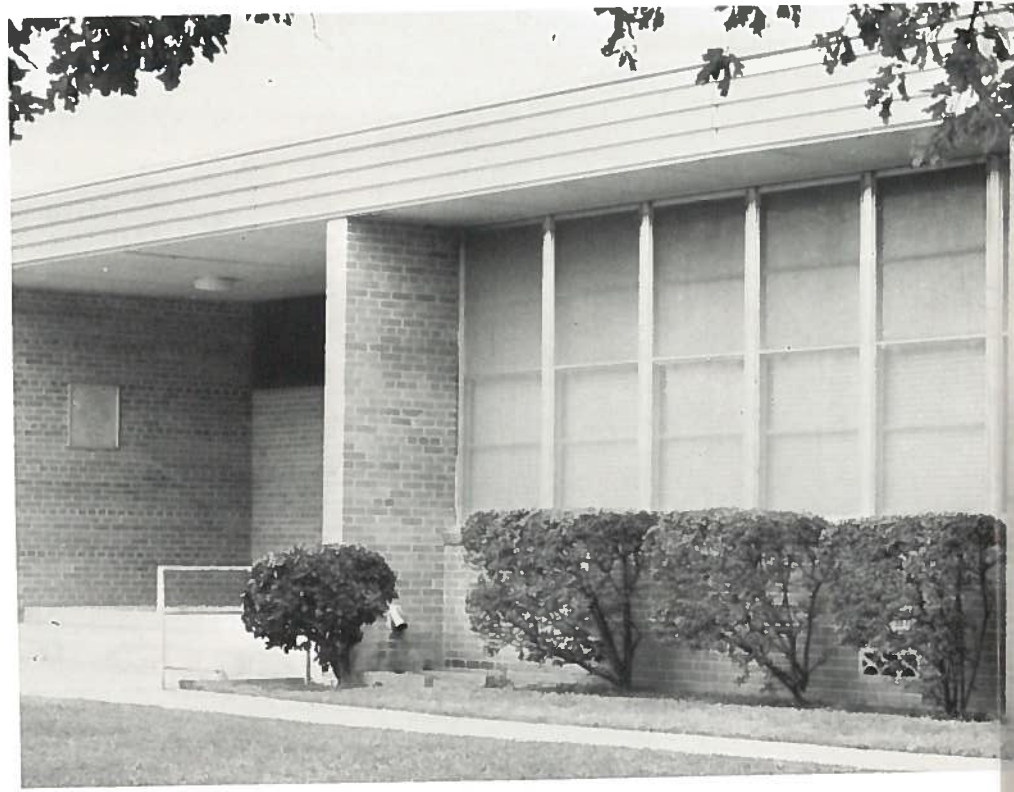

The Lair Staff of 1970 proudly dedicates this Lair to Mr. Gus Johnson who has given seventeen years of service to the Rockdale Public Schools as Tax Assessor-Collector. He was the first Tax Assessor-Collector the school district had and set up and maintained a near perfect record of collections.

His foresight, sound judgement and devoted service merited our highest esteem and his kind and engaging personality endeared him to all of us.

His service to the Rockdale Schools will be remembered in years to come.

SHERRA FLOYD
EDITOR

This 1970 Lair has been prepared for you with much care, patience and effort so that it might bring you a few pleasant memories, a smile, a laugh, and perhaps, even a bit of nostalgia as you recall a certain class, a particular friend or even a teacher that made the 1969-1970 school year a year to be remembered.

As editor, I have had a pleasant and rewarding experience compiling this year-book, along with a few moments of exasperation and several headaches. However, it is my wish that this record of the school year just past will have a bit of meaning to you because of this edition of The Lair, and also, that you will enjoy having a copy to remind you of these days gone by.

MR. J. M. MOORMAN - Superintendent of the Rockdale Public Schools

Choose the highest and most noble cause for your life and let God so completely possess you that nothing can deter you from reaching your goal. The only answer to a world filled with dissent is to turn loose of yourself and take hold of God. You will never know how much I appreciate each of you.

Dear Santa,

How are you doing? I have been a good boy this year. I have helped mommy and daddy this year. I will leave some milk and cookies on the kitchen table. I would like two Gunsmoke pistols, a G.I. Joe, a wagon, (my old one is broken), a Tonka dump truck, and a football suit and a Donnie Cash doll. I am looking forward to this Christmas very much. Goodbye for now.

Love,

1970 CLASS WILL

The Rockdale High School Graduating Class of 1970, in addition to leaving behind a legacy never to be forgotten (and possibly never to be remembered) also leaves as its final testimony this will that bequeaths to certain individuals some of the priceless possessions, ideas, and merits of the illustrious seniors, just past, who are now forging their marks in the harsh cruel world far beyond the protective and maternal doors of RHS.

Susan Abel, the farm beauty who excels in hog calling leaves this ability to another Sharp Community Beauty, Randy Graves. Charles Alonzo, leaving the football field, leaves his pig-skin ability to Emmett McBride; Mary Lou Armstrong wills her fall and falling baton to whom-ever can catch them. Mickey Baca just simply leaves after many years at RHS and Patricia Backhaus leaves her splendid library talents to Shelia Williard who will probably refuse to accept them.

Greg Biehle, Mr. Photogenic, leaves the school with his smile, and Dickie Thompson, yearbook photographer is most definitely glad to see him go. Judy Black wills her toothpaste smile to Darrell Hirt, Another smiling beauty, Ann Bouldin, also wills her smile, wit, and charm to Gail Ging. Alice Brady, owner of many and varied talents, leaves the best of them, office working, to her co-office worker, Barbara Terry while Mae Kathryn Brooks is just pleased to leave the halls of RHS with her sister Jean.

Debbie Buttery, of car crashing fame, leaves the parking lot in shambles. Larry Caffey leaves and we wonder if Denise Thompson has positive or negative reactions about his departure. Vickie Caffey leaves her equestrienne talents to Shelley Roddam. Joe Caldwell wills his creative and sensitive talents to fellow actor David Blacklock. Homecoming Queen, Mary Camp, leaves her crown to the lucky winner of the 1970 contest who will be driven around the football field in the Renault that Bobby Chaney designed, produced, and then gave to Nevin Hord. Byran Christian and Carl Cleveland leave their grocery sacking ability to Charles Criddle and Ronnie Bishop. Vivian Collier was happy to be able to leave. Morris Cook leaves his coronet blasting to David Lafferre.

Jim Crow wills his exceptional leadership and scholarship to Donnie Praesel. Mike Cryer leaves RHS with an open mouth, surprised at his graduation. Larry Currey wills his loud voice to Bill Foster while Sally Curtis leaves her locker to Truett Cliver. Charlotte Darby leaves the library to Mrs. Marshall in hopes that it can be run efficiently. Helen Diver leaves her wit and humor to Cherry Collier. Barbara Douglas leaves her quiet personality to another timid soul, Kathy Morgan. Carolyn Drehr leaves her country-western music to that hillbilly queen Judy Parmelee.

Judy Dyer leaves her hair spray to Debra Sandidge. Jim Eanes leaves his ability to lead the Pledge of Allegiance to Jamie McQuary. Dub Fatheree wills his shy, timid ways to Bert Brown. Bettie Fisher leaves the checkout counter. Mary Ann Flores leaves to find Henry Masiel. Mary Cecilia Flores leaves the city library to the citizens of Rockdale. Robert Flores leaves the school to devote his full time duties to his wife.

Sherra Floyd wills the yearbook with all its joys and agonies to Mr. Patranelle who wills that it should disappear. Teresa Fritz leaves her perfect hairdo to Shelia Moore while Rose Fuchs leaves her also perfect hairdo to no one in particular, just those who might need it. Jimmie Garza leaves RHS without a sign of misgiving; he is just happy to be on his way. Rose Gates leaves her flair for fashion to Vicoria Williams. Alfred Gest leaves his intelligence to next year's high ranking boy. Glenda Ging leaves to become Mrs. Ronny Wiley and Charles Guillote wills his super strength to Frank Drehr. Tom Guthrie wills his ability in speech making to Johnny Ralston. Patricia Haining leaves her sister Rola behind so she can pass on all the RHS gossip to her.

Regena Hammett leaves her ability to make super cut-downs to Reny Joseph. Billy Harris wills his position at the Dairy Queen to Jimmy Muston. David Head leaves Mrs. Petty in peace as does the original Mr. Puf'n'Stuff, Wesley Henson. Beverly Hirt wills that her A+ average be given to Quen Solomon. Ronny Holamon leaves for military duty and Randy Holt wills his swift yellow car to Allan Miller. Deborah Hosek, class valeditorian, leaves her bundle of energy and nerves to Patricia Tomlin. Terry Hoskins leaves his truck to his sister Robin. Nancy Isaacs leaves her artistic ability to Tim Speer. Jane Johnston leaves her title of best dressed to Karen Hosek. Barbara Jones leaves her locker to Waymon Page who used it enough this past year. Ricky Jones, the original loudmouth leaves his noise making to John Roesler. Teresa Jones leaves her general excellent ability in everything to Pattie Peebles. Betty Key leaves Bill Smith and a tear or two. Donnie Knott leaves many an empty pouch of Redman to Arlyn Hammett. Donna Kopecky leaves her good looks to the girl that needs them the most.

Johnny Lamb wills his old motorcycle jacket to Lionel Servantez. Viola Lamere wills her sweet personality to Deborah Stephens. Sharon Jones leaves her sister Donna behind to follow in her footsteps. Dan Legg wills his athletic ability, charm, and handsomeness Jay Horton. Ritchie Lester, also bound for military duty leaves a toothpick for Landis Bayless. Ellen Luckey, Miss Young Republican, wills her political beliefs to Mr. Underwood. Sue Ann Lumpkins statuesque beauty to Josi Garza.

Virginia Mantel wills her library typing position to Pam Seelke. Ernest Norwood wills his singing ability Carl Jones. David Matthews leaves to attend all the drag races he can. Kay McBride wills her brown leather suite to her sister Lydia. Pat McCormick wills her red hair to Myron Schneider. Patricia McGowan wills her quiet disposition to Susie Love while Jimette McNeil leaves her poise and grace to Debbie Alford. Donna Morgan wills the slogan "Is it true," do blondes have more fun" to anyone brave enough to find out. Gerald Morton leaves Phyllis Yoakum in the halls at RHS while Sandra Morton leaves Joe Greg Nelson also in the halls. Tresha Bryant wills her brother Kennard anything he wants out at Black Jack. John Montoya leaves Miss Lengert alone and she is eternally grateful.

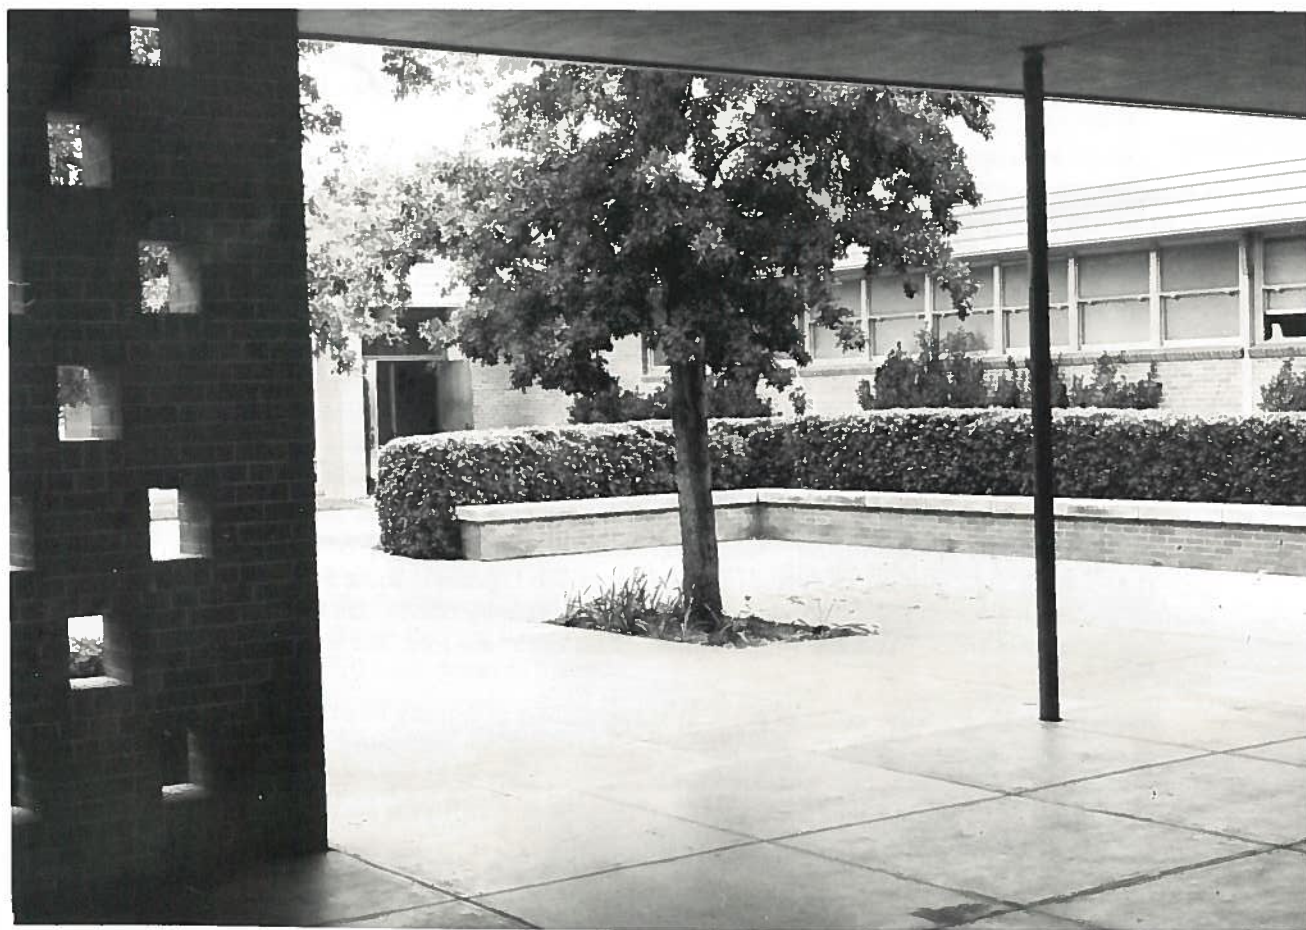

Richard Munoz wills his baseball prowess to Pat Blinka. Williams Murray leaves his killer instinct to Glen Simpson. Billy Muston leaves his fond memories of the Huntsville FFA trip to Larry Ingram. Bonnie Muston wills her weird laugh to Pattie O'Connor. Joan Muston leaves her hair styling ability to Danny Laird. Wanda Patterson and Helen Phillips, two of the quietest girls at RHS leave their solitude to Yolanda Masiel and Janice Lightsey. Alice Pogue wills that horrible grade she made in English III never to be recalled again by CMP. Dan Pogue wills his cigarette to Richard Frock. Deborah Pontruff of the sweet smile and long hair wills both Libby Whiteley.

Beautiful Vickie Pounders wills her physical attractiveness to Selina Chmelar who really doesn't need anything. Donna Ray leaves Wayne Roe next to locker 64. Patty Remaley wills her blonde tresses to Gail Drake. Ned Richards wills his distinct walk to Bo Blackburn. Kathy Romine wills her athletic ability to Doris Vasek. Mike Rosenburg wills his cycle to Johnny Manning and Johnny Ruiz leaves for Rosebud once again.

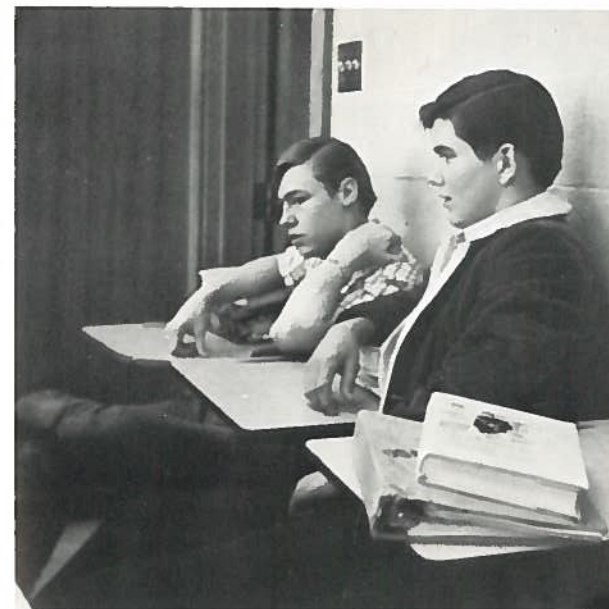

Bill Smith leaves Betty Key and a tear or two, also. Shirley Spells leaves his P.E. Award to Mack Homeyer. David Stewart leaves his two best friends behind, namely Carol Strelsky and John Seago. Linda Tate leaves her homemaking talents to Patty Wright.

Johnny Terry wills his mustache to Leonard Davis. Priestly Tindall wills his position at Piggly Wiggly to James Throckmorton. Jimmie Voyles wills any dead animals at the Junior High School to Neals Beery. George Wall, Jr. wills his paper route to his brother, Keith, in order to keep all the money in the family.

George Washington wills his ability in geometry to Bob Young and Judy Weiser wills her note taking ability to Belinda Gest. Patricia Wenger wills her horse to Debbie Shook. Marvin Marion wills his political ambitions to Darrell Jacob. Beverly Yoakum wills her all around wonder-woman-abilities to Joyce Krenek, while her cousin, Brenda Yoaku, leaves her original wit to anyone who can catch it. Sam Williams leaves to Randoll Luckey who has replaced him at Morris Pharmacy. Last, but certainly not least, Joe Young, the blond golf whiz, wills all his possessions both personal and real, to Robin Horton, for saving his life at the infamous cabin retreat near the San Gabriel River.

And the graduating class of 1970 wills this patio to all underclassmen.

I once sang soprano for the Metropolitan Opera.

Who is that behind those Foster Grants?

You know, it's tough being an assistant principal.

On your mark ...

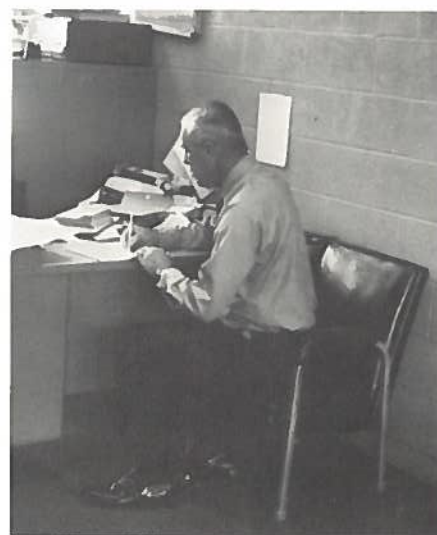

5¢ plus 15¢ plus 15¢ equals a juicy fine list.

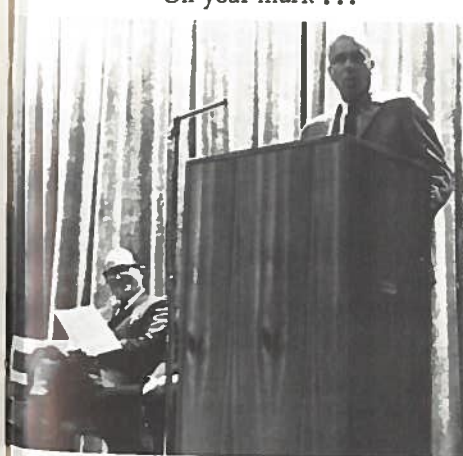

Central Casting calling Brenda Yoakum?

This is how I won the Civics Award.

Boy, I wish I had my own secretary.

Mr. Underwood, that wasn't intended to be a joke.

I'll wait til she gets out and then I'll tell her to move her car.

Let me help you into your limousine, Sir!

1970 CLASS PROPHECY

Although the Senior Class of 1970 is certain to make itself outstanding in the years to come, we have asked the assistants of one of the world's best known astrologers to inform us to what he foresees for Rockdale's recently graduated personalities.

It took much effort to arrive at a positive position about many of these individuals but with star struck eyes and constellations of thought our wizard of odds and ends presents us with the following glimpse into the future.

The year is 2000 and in the capital city of Washington, District of Columbia, the phones in the mansion at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue are quite busy as the First Lady of the land, Susan Abel, goes about preparations for a thirty year class reunion with her high school classmates of 1970. She has already contacted the Secretary of the Navy, Ritchie Lester and he has assured her that he will be on hand for the gala affair and he will bring along the Undersecretary of the Navy, Ronnie Holamon. The First Lady now recalls the head of the Transportation Department, only to find that Robert Chaney's secretary informs her that Mr. Chaney is in Detroit and will not be back until the afternoon of the party.

Checking over the guest list, the First Lady then decides to check the Senate list for anyone she might have missed. She finds, however, that both Senator Alfred Gest and Senator Sue Lumpkins have been invited so she calls the governor's mansion in Austin, Texas.

The renown bachelor Governor of Texas, James Crow is delighted to hear from his old classmate and assured her that he will be there for the event as will state treasurer George Wall, Jr. Another call is placed and soon the First Lady is speaking to Governor Sally Curtis Cliver of California, recently elected as the Golden State's first woman governor.

The First Lady of California tells the First Lady of the USA that she is certain to attend and that she will bring along two residents of California, Joe Caldwell, the recent Academy Award winning best actor and the world famous soul singer Ernest Norwood. The Californian also says that her party ensemble was fashioned by the Nancy Isaacs House of Design and that her hair will be styled by Joan, herself, of Muston's Coiffure Salons, International.

Thinking along the line of entertainment celebrities the nation's First Lady recalls others from her graduating class that made it to the big time. Judy Black, currently starring in her eighteenth Broadway success and Rose Gates who is still one of the biggest singers in the business. Miss Gates, she now recalls, is part of an act that also includes Kay McBride and Barbara Douglas; they are known as the Older Supremes and their stage manager is Johnny Terry.

She also recalls that Morris Cook now is the leader of his own orchestra and was recently signed to a weekly television show replacing the tired Lawrence Welk music makers. Included in the Cook Champagne Orchestra are members from his high school band such as the new Champagne Lady, Mary Lou Armstrong, soloist Avis Grayson, jazzmen Larry Curry and Billy Harris, dancers Betty Key and Bill Smith (who are now Mr. and Mrs.) and the Flores Family Singers (replacing the Lennons) consisting of Mary Ann, Mary Cecilia, and Robert. Also included in the Cook ensemble is general music supervisor Thomas Guthrie.

The First Lady receives a call from Congresswoman, and long time friend, Beverly Yoakum, now of Tennessee to report that she was able to locate her cousin Brenda Yoakum, at her night club act in Las Vegas and that she said "Yes" to the invitation. Congresswoman Yoakum from Nashville, also says that she spoke to several stars of the Grand Ole Opry and they all consented to attend the affair. Carolyn Drehr and Patricia Wenger, graduates of the Dolly Parton Hour, will attend as well as the number one and number two Country western male singers in the nation Larry "Bo" Caffey and Buford Christian.

Also the Muston Family Singers will be represented with the appearance of Miss Bonnie and Brother Billy. Congresswoman Yoakum said she also spoke to the world famous J. O. Cash Knott and not only did he say that he would attend and sing his latest hit "Rockdale" but that he would bring along the former Mr. and Miss Rodeo USA, Big Wes Hensen and Sandra Morton; Also it was reported that the trio of lovelies known as the Smokey Mountain Girls would attend if the night did not coincide with their appearance on the Ed Sullivan Show. Of course, these girls, recent Grammy winners are known by all as Charlotte Darby, Deborah Hosek and Patricia McKowan. Their manager Pat McCormick said he would try to get them to the party.

Thinking of refreshments for the party, the First Lady spoke to the Head Chef Viola Lamere and told her to order most of the staple items from the supermarket firm of Cleveland, Pogue, and Tindall; also she requested that all floral arrangements be made by the House of Linda Tate and Wanda Patterson.

The social secretary to the First Lady, Donna Ray reported that former Miss America, Vickie Pounders and former Miss USA Judy Dyer had called to accept the invitations presented them as well as high fashion models Patricia Backhaus, Rose Fuchs, and Alice Pogue. Miss Ray also reported that Miss Fuchs had opened her own beauty and charm school with Miss Pogue as general fashion coordinator. Donna Morgan, new president of Clairrol, Incorporated had called, also to say that she and fellow blonde Patty Remy would be flying in from New York for the party along with seven new hair colors for the First Lady to try out.

This hair-color idea reminded the First Lady that she needed to order her new supply of cosmetics from Phillip's and Pontruff's Powder Parlor, owned by Helen and Deborah as well as to make an appointment for lunch to discuss her gown for the party with an old friend.

The friend was editor-in-chief of three of the world's best known magazines for women, Sherra Floyd. Sherra was now the millionairess of Ladies Home Journal, co-edited by Teresa Jones; McCalls co-edited by Patricia Haining; Cosmopolitan co-edited by Donna Kopecky.

Miss Floyd told the First Lady that she would bring several sketches of different gowns to the luncheon as well as those two best dressed international socialities Jane Johnston and Judy Weiser. With all that expert help the First Lady was certain to have the perfect gowns. She then smiled because she knew the gown has to match the cologne created especially for her by the Perfume Corporation of America owned by Vivian Collier and Beverly Hirt.

The thought of the First Lady were interrupted by a visit from the heads of the Physical Fitness Committee, Regena Hammett and Cathy Romine. With healthy, glowing faces they reported that female Olympic star Jimette McNeil was coming. Heisman trophy winners, Jim Eanes and Charles Alonza would appear as well as Boston Celtics super star Dub Fatheree and two time all America Winner Samuel Williams. Miss Hammett said, too, that the recent winners of both the U.S. Open and the Masters, Joe Young was scheduled to appear along with track star Shirley Spells and Barbara Jones. Baseball's greatest player since Micky Mantle, Richard Munoz was flying in as tennis champion and camera bug Greg Biehle.

Biehle was reported to be flying in from his ranch in Texas along with veterinarians Miguel Baca and Mike Cryer.

Cycle experts Mike Rosenburg and Jimmy Voyles has already left Alaska by bike to make it to the party in time and expert horsewoman, Vicki Caffey, owner of three consecutive Kentucky Derby winners has stated she would attend the party also. Race driver and speed expert, Debbie Buttery, only woman to win the Indianapolis 500 and the Grand Prix Monte Carlo had said she too would come to the affair.

Swimming stars, Helen Diver, Charles Guillote, and four time Olympic Gold Medal winner George Washington, expressed regrets that they could not attend. They will be in Venezuela competing in the Summer Aqua Olympics along with their coaches Virginia Mantel and Ricky Jones. Also unable to attend are John Montoya and Johnny Ruiz who will act as official interpreters for the USA these games.

The former boxing champion of the world Johnny Lamb said he would attend as have tennis greats Randy Holt, Terry Hoskins, and Theresa Fritz.

The First Lady was pleased by their acceptances and begin to think of befitting souvenirs to present each guest with. She called on the jewelry firm owned by Mary Camp to design memorable medallions and asked that they all be inscribed with RHS 1970.

The First Lady's business secretary, former Republican Committee woman from Texas, Ellen Luckey, told the First Lady that college professors Gerald Morton and Clayton Young of MIT; Marvin Marion and Ned Richards of Grambling; David Stewart and William Murray of Harvard all accept invitations as had head of the Wall Street Stock Exchange, David Head.

Betty Fisher once named Young American Homemaker but now living in Okinawa and Glenda Ging a runner up for Mrs. America were reported to be coming to the affair as well as Sharon Jones, now the owner of a nationwide eating establishment called Sharon's Chicken.

Trisha Morton Bryant, could not make the party as her husband and she were sailing for Africa and the Orient. Mae Kathryn Brooks was unable to attend because she was to accompany her best friend Alice Brady, the international opera star to a concert tour of Eastern Europe. At the last moment, however, Miss Brady was taken ill and cancelled her tour. However, the First Lady was still upset because in addition to Miss Brady not being able to appear there would also be the absence of the ever popular singing star, Ann Bouldin.

The First Lady had wanted both Miss Brady and Miss Bouldin to appear so that they could be special guests and sing for the entire assemblage of celebrities.

With only this minor catastrophe at hand the First Lady was pleased to know that her gala reunion party for her graduating class of 1970 would be a smashing success. She would present as guest of honor Ambassador Dan Legg who had just been voted Secretary General of the United Nations and he too, would serve as her escort.

You see, in addition to being First Lady of the Land, she is also known as Madame President or President Abel. As president she is an expert and performs her duties without error. However, at times she wishes she did have a husband. It is at a time like this that she misses the possibility of renewing a relationship with that bachelor Governor Crow from Texas, or the still single athlete Dub Fatheree, or the ever eligible Pulitzer Prize novelist Robert Jackson, or that golf great Joe Young. After all, who knows what the future holds?
