NINTH GRADE

- Darren Reece! DJ has stepped up big time and started helping the younger members of next year's drumline. In rehearsals, he immediately greets anyone new that walks in and gets them what they need so I don't have to stop teaching. He also speaks up and gives pointers. I'm really proud of you, DJ! Keep it up! ~K. Spoonemore
- Sebastian Zoque! Sebastian is a great helper in my class. He is the first to arrive every morning. He goes straight to the box and gets the whole class's papers to hand back if we are working on a packet. He helps put away Chromebooks and pick up little messes without being asked. He is polite and well behaved every day with a great attitude. He does a great job on all of his assignments and always gives 100%. I am proud to have Sebastian in my class! ~N. McClain
- Bradly Morgan! Bradley came through in an emergency! When one of our AFJROTC cadets didn't show up for a Color Guard, Bradley volunteered to fill in. Despite almost no time to prepare, he perfectly led his Color Guard team through the opening parade for Houston Special Olympics. He received tons of praise and thanks from the officials, parents and athletes. Fantastic job Bradley!! ~Lt. Col. R. Hunt

TENTH GRADE

- Braydan Chaney! When another student dropped out at the last minute, Braydan stepped in to fill an AFJROTC Color Guard assignment. Despite limited preparation time, Braydan performed flawlessly! He helped his team open the Houston Special Olympics and received high praise from the officials, parents and athletes. Great job Braydan!! ~Lt. Col. R. Hunt
- Jayla Jones! Jayla is very sweet and she makes me laugh most of the time when I see her, she does something silly. When she is walking down the hall or when she just sees me, she will shout out my name, so I know who is calling me. I have enjoyed getting to know Jayla and her humor. ~J. Youngblood

ELEVENTH GRADE

- Demarion Swift! I've taught Demarion since he was in the 6th grade band, and it's been a joy to watch him grow as a musician and as a leader. He has started taking initiative in setting up ahead of time for drumline practice without being asked, and he is already taking on his senior leadership role for next year. I am so proud of you, Demarion! Thank you, and keep it up! ~K. Spoonemore
- Martin Franco! Martin makes me laugh almost every day. When he sees me he always tells me hello, asks how my day is going and always has a good weekend. He has a kind spirit and gentle nature. Glad I've gotten to know him this year. Keep up the good work, Martin! ~J. Youngblood
- Valeria Turrubiates! Valeria joined us last year and started learning percussion after moving from a different band program where she played the baritone. Since being with us, Valeria has worked so hard and practiced non-stop to keep up with the other percussionists who have been playing since the 6th grade. She has also stepped up by leading the section, and has been gearing up to be one of our senior leaders for next year's marching season. Valeria keeps her peers on track, and is never afraid to speak up for what's right. I wish we had her for longer than just 3 years, but I'm so glad she is with us now! ~K. Spoonemore
- Keyla Hernandez! Keyla is a nice young lady whom I have gotten to know this year. She works very hard keeping her grades up. She does very well in her ROTC program and is very proud of her accomplishments; she should be. I am proud of you, Keyla, for keeping up the good work. ~J. Youngblood

TWELFTH GRADE

- Yareisy Acosta! Yareisy is a great student. She is polite, respectful, and studious. I have watched her grow and mature from a young 7th grader to the young woman she is today and it is awesome! Yareisy will make a great member of the society. I am excited to see what her future holds! ~A. Hollie
- Ambar Munguia-Cabrera! You did fantastic on your certification exam. Congratulations on earning your CCMA! ~J. Wallace
- Ashley Kirkland! Ashley is so sweet, kind, respectful and cheerful. She is an office aide and jumps up very quickly when we ask for an aide; she never hesitates. She is a smart young lady who will go far in the future. I wish her much joy and success. ~J. Youngblood
