

Mission Statement

Canterbury School of Florida educates and nurtures the whole child in mind, body, and spirit in preparation for college and an honorable life as a responsible steward of our world.

Canterbury School of Florida is seeking an Upper/Middle School Humanities Instructor for the 2022-2023 school year. This candidate will also implement LEADS (Canterbury's character education program) through advisory and will be expected to perform various duties that support the Knowlton Campus.

In addition, this faculty member will have a commitment to the school's mission and an interest in community involvement through participation in school-wide committees and activities. It is expected that each faculty member contributes to a positive culture by building collaborative, collegial, and respectful relationships with colleagues and overtly supporting the Canterbury community.

Skills and Abilities

- Excellent organization, presentation, and communication skills.
- Strong classroom management skills.
- Commitment to collaboration and team teaching across disciplines.
- Basic problem solving, multitasking and troubleshooting skills.

Typical Duties

- Instruct multiple sections of Upper and Middle School English and Social Science courses.
- Prepare and deliver lesson plans.
- Collaborate with colleagues to enhance instructional activities and environment.
- Update and maintain student academic records and performance metrics.
- Communicate regularly with parents, students, and colleagues regarding student progress.

Educational and Other Requirements

- Relevant Bachelor's Degree required. A Master's degree is preferred.
- Prior experience teaching middle school preferred.
- Successful completion of pre-employment background screening, drug testing, and safety training required.

Interested applicants should send a letter of interest and resume to Donnamarie Hehn, Head of Knowlton Campus, at employment@canterburyflorida.org.