

Mission Statement

Canterbury School of Florida educates and nurtures the whole child in mind, body, and spirit in preparation for college and an honorable life as a responsible steward of our world.

Canterbury School of Florida is seeking a Computer Science Instructor for the 2022-2023 school year. This position will also be assisting the technology department with level 1 troubleshooting and support for students and faculty.

In addition, this faculty member will have a commitment to the School's mission and an interest in community involvement through participation in school-wide committees and activities. It is expected that each faculty member contributes to a positive culture by building collaborative, collegial, and respectful relationships with colleagues and overtly supporting the Canterbury community.

Skills and Abilities

- Excellent organization, presentation and communication skills.
- Classroom management skills.
- Commitment to collaboration and team teaching across disciplines.
- Knowledge of computer science principles and concepts of coding and language development.
- Basic problem solving, multitasking and troubleshooting skills.

Typical Duties

- Instruct multiple sections of Computer Science courses.
- Prepare and deliver lesson plans.
- Update and maintain student academic records and performance metrics.
- Communicate regularly with parents, students and colleagues regarding student progress.
- Collaborate with colleagues to enhance makerspace, hour of code and Computer Science Education Week activities.
- Assist with the support of classroom technology.

Educational and Other Requirements

- Bachelor's Degree required. A Master's degree in education or a computer science related field is preferred.
- Prior experience teaching upper school computer science preferred.
- Successful completion of pre-employment background screening, drug testing and safety training required.

Applicants should send a letter of interest and resume to Donnamarie Hehn, Head of Knowlton Campus, at employment@canterburyflorida.org.