COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship will be awarded to a graduating Skykomish High School senior who has demonstrated solid academic effort and strong involvement in the community and school activities. If the PTSO receives more than one application for this scholarship before the deadline, the scholarship award of $1,000 may be divided equally amongst the most highly qualified student applicants. The recipient(s) and the amount of the scholarship(s) will be announced at graduation. The money will be awarded after:

- 1. the student's successful completion of his/her first quarter/semester at a college or university and subsequent enrollment for the following term. During such term the student must maintain a 3.0 GPA or better and provide copies of transcripts to the PTSO scholarship committee.
- 2. the student enters the military and successfully completes Basic Training.
- 3. the student enters an apprenticeship or internship program and completes the training with a satisfactory letter written by the supervisor.
- 4. The student enters a private job/skills training program and attains certification in that field.
