

Film Production Instructor

Organizational Summary:

Tampa Preparatory School is the premier private school in the Tampa Bay area for students in grades 6 – 12. Tampa Prep’s focus on what’s best for students means we pay attention to adolescent development. We incorporate the latest research and data on teenage brain function, retention and development into our programs. Our rich academic tradition, along with a commitment to arts, athletics and a focus on producing well-rounded citizens in a very inclusive community has made Tampa Prep one of the best schools in Tampa. Our educational philosophy instills values of fairness, decency, honor, diligence and academic curiosity. The School stresses the development of self-confidence, a sense of worth and the importance of having fun in the pursuit of one’s goals.

Position Summary:

We are currently seeking a full-time film instructor for the 2022-2023 academic year. The responsibilities for this position include teaching five sections of film production classes, one in the middle school and four in the upper school. This person will also help support the Video Arts Concentration, especially the fulfillment of student responsibilities involved in the Concentration. Candidates are expected to collaborate with others, demonstrate a mastery of classroom management techniques, and professionally oversee the film equipment and facilities. Applicants should be production-focused in their pedagogy. Tampa Prep has a professional-grade production lab on campus with a full light grid, Arri light kits, and an infinity wall, allowing for the potential to create high-end digital content. Candidates must have an intermediate to a high level of expertise in Final Cut Pro, Adobe Premiere Pro, and/or DaVinci Resolve, and possess a bachelors and/or an advanced degree in a related discipline.

Information for Applicants:

This is a 10-month, full-time, benefit eligible position. Salary is commensurate with experience. For consideration, please forward cover letter and resume to Donald Morrison, Dean of Faculty at dmorrison@tampaprep.org
