

WRS Advanced Strategies for MSL Group Instruction

This workshop delves into essential techniques and strategies to improve all aspects of Wilson Reading System® (WRS) small-group instruction through hands-on practice and discussion, and prepares participants for the WRS Group Mastery Practicum.

In this Document, learn more about:

- Prerequisites
- Duration
- Upon Completion
- Graduate Credit

---

Prerequisites

WRS Level I Certification
Bachelor's degree in education or a related field

Duration

Three consecutive days (15 hours)

Upon Completion

At the completion of the course, participants will be able to:

- Identify factors for successful WRS small-group instruction.
- Review the planning for and execution of WRS Lesson Blocks 1, 2, and 3 and differentiating instruction for maximum group success.
- Develop a word-conscious lesson.
- Understand the role of spelling in writing fluency.
- Determine how to ensure students successfully access complex text; both literary and informational text structures.
- Understand how to select the appropriate text and tasks for students in order to effectively plan for and deliver fluency and comprehension instruction.

Graduate Credit

One graduate credit (optional) is available through Fitchburg State University, Fitchburg, MA, upon completion of course requirements. Please see Process for Graduate Credit for details.