

WELCOME!

Welcome to The Wardlaw+Hartridge School! We are so excited that you have chosen to enroll in this globally interconnected and dynamic community. We take our holistic approach in developing the entire child, very seriously. Preparing our students not just for the immediate times but for whatever the future holds is an awesome responsibility for us, and we look forward to partnering with you in this undertaking. Before you know it, September will be here, and the real fun will begin.

We are honored that you have chosen our school for your child's future academic and extracurricular endeavors. We look forward to getting to know your family better and are equally eager to introduce you to the W+H family.

Please be aware of the following opportunities to visit campus to start acquainting yourself to the community and one another.
