

High School – Credits

To earn credit in any high school course, a student must demonstrate proficiency in course competencies.

Competency may be demonstrated through course assessments, online tutorials, internships, completing the requirements of a competency recovery plan and other methods approved by the Principal after consultation with content area specialist(s).

Legal References:

Ed 306.02(e), Credit

Ed 306.04 (a)(15), How Credit Can Be Earned

Ed 306.04(a)(16), How a Credit Used To Track Achievement of Graduation Competencies

Revised: 04/11/83

Approved: 05/09/83

Revised: 08/85

Revised: 07/89

Adopted: 09/25/89

Reviewed: 11/00

Revised: 12/18/15

Amended: 08/28/18