

Character and Citizenship

In its efforts to teach character and citizenship development, the curriculum, programs and teaching practices at Inter-Lakes School District shall, to the extent possible, reflect through all grade levels the following elements:

1. Each individual has dignity and worth;
2. A free society requires respect for persons, property and principles and for self;
3. Each individual has a right to learn and freedom to achieve;
4. Each individual, regardless of race, creed, color, sex, ethnic background, gender identification and/or sexual orientation, or economic status, has the right to equal opportunity;
5. An individual should be tolerant of another's beliefs and should have freedom to express his/her own beliefs;
6. Each individual is responsible for his/her own actions and should exercise self-discipline where and when appropriate;
7. Each individual has a responsibility to the group, as well as to the total society;
8. A democratic government is established and governed by majority vote;
9. Democratic societies are based on law;
10. Problems are solved through reason and orderly processes;
11. Each individual has the right to personal liberties;
12. Each individual has the right to work, to pursue an occupation and to gain satisfaction from personal efforts.
